19TH YEAR. NO. 233. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1902. TWO CENTS.

ATTEND THE "ON TO CAIRO" MEETING AT CITY HALL TONIGHT.

THREE STORES RAIDED BY BOLD BURGLARS OVER IN CHESTER

A Gang Visited Clothing Store, Drug Store and Grocery—S. Bloom Was the Greatest Loser.

All Chester is excited over a daring robbery, which took place there last night. Theree stores suffered from the depredations of the gang. C. T. McCutchison's drug store, the Chester Grocery company's store and S. Bloom's furnishing store were broken into.

The gang is very probably the same which has been operating in East Liverpool. The burglars made an attempt to force an entrance into the store of Allison & Hobbs but were frightened away by the occupants of the store. Mr. Allison heard a noise at the stable door, but he paid no attention to it, thinking it was made by the horse. It was afterwards found that the thieves had pried the staple from the door.

From the stable the gang probably expected to gain an entrance to the store room, and thence into the post-office, where the safe is kept.

At McCutcheon's store, the back door was first tried, and an attempt made to climb in over the transom. Failing in this the side window was pried up and from there the entrance was made.

The gang carried the cash register out through the back door and over into a nearby field, where it was unscrewed, and the contents, amounting to $1.75 was taken. Mr. McCutcheon's trunk was rifled and a small amount of money was taken from it.

Mr. McCutcheon had quite a sum of money in his room up stairs, but the theives made no attempt to go up the stairs. Some of the stolen money was found on the ground near the register.

DISTINCT VICTORY GAINED BY LABOR

House Adopted Amended Compulsory Arbitration Act After Much Debate.

SENATORS HAVE A SCRAP

And the Bill for the Repeal of the Jones Arc Light Bill Is Put to Sleep—Legislative Session Nearing the Close.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, October 2.—Labor scored a distinct victory in the house yesterday afternoon when that body by a substantial majority adopted the Guerin compulsory arbitration amendment after it had been amended by Willis, of Hardin, so as to apply to the curative act passed the day before. The amendment specifies that all disputes between electric railways and their employes shall be settled by arbitration. The representatives of the labor organizations in the legislature are elated over the passage of the amendment. They say is presages the coming of a time when all disputes will be settled by arbitration. The debate over the question took up most of the afternoon session, and while it was lively it was not as fiery as that of the previous day over the curative act.

Representative Beall secured the adoption of an amendment similar to the one which passed the senate, placing the Beal local option act in the house code, which means that it will stay there, both bodies having agreed on this. The anti-saloon people have issued a statement in which they claim that the insertion of the Beal act in the code is a victory for them. The saloon interests declare it makes no difference.

The senate had an interesting scrap yesterday over the Thompson bill for the repeal of the Jones arc light act. It was defeated as a motion to reconsider, which squelches the bill for all time. Thompson made a hard fight for the measure, and had it called up several times in various ways, but on each occasion its passage was blocked only by a narrow margin.

The senate adjourned till yesterday morning, when another adjournment will be taken to Monday. Little will be done before Tuesday, leaving these matters in about the same shape as they left the committee's hands. Consideration of the code may be completed by the house this week, and if no routine business follows, the legislature may be able to adjourn sine die not later than a week on Monday.

LOOKING AFTER REGISTRATION

Deputy Election Supervisors Making Arrangements to Apply the New Law.

VIEW OF STATE SECRETARY

Is That the Provisions of the Act Should Be Enforced in East Liverpool This Fall—His Advice to the County Board.

The county board of election supervisors is meeting at Lisbon today. The main purpose of the meeting is to make more complete arrangements for the registering of the voters of East Liverpool.

Definite word has been received from the secretary of state, Secretary Walton, of the county board was the recipient yesterday of a communication from Secretary of State Laylin, advising the board that the registering should be proceeded with according to the provisions of the special act passed last winter by the legislature. Mr. Laylin does not believe the law broad enough to cover every phase of the matter, and gives it as his opinion that while there are many points which could have been made more clear, still the supervisors will hardly meet with a great amount of difficulty in complying with the law as it is laid down in its present form.

As to the legality of the act, the state official has no doubt. The county board is authorized by him to proceed with the work at once, and that the state authorities will stand behind it until such time as the law is declared unconstitutional by some competent court. This to the present has not been done.

One drawback which the supervisors have met with is their inability to secure suitable rooms and furniture with which to furnish the registration officials. It is understood by the officers of the board, however, that Chief Thompson has taken up the work, and will provide whatever is necessary.

The secretary of state directs that especial care be taken by the board in the selection of the registers and the clerks. In order to make up for any points which may have been omitted from the law, the supervisors are ordered to exercise discretion and good judgment. They are also advised to act in accordance with the advice of the prosecuting attorney.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN TONIGHT'S MEETING TO BOOM NAVIGATION

All Indications Point to a Rousing Gathering and Great Enthusiasm on the Subject.

Prospects are encouraging for a large turnout at the "On to Cairo" meeting, to be held at the city hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock in pursuance of a call issued by Mayor Davidson.

Since the call was issued the subject has been paramount among all who have the general welfare of the city at heart. It is hoped that the management of every industry of the city will be represented, and each will be called upon to make a declaration on the subject. Logical arguments will undoubtedly be presented, and in one accord for the proposed river improvements.

W. E. Wells, general secretary of the Homer Laughlin China company, has accepted an invitation to propound the vital necessities of the improvements. He, being in a position to know exactly what the shipping industries have for years been in need of, his speech is being looked forward to with kindly anticipations.

Among the others who will likely be called upon to address the meeting are Col. J. N. Taylor, H. P. Knoblock and Wharfmaster Gus Martindill, all of whom are able to deliver weighty arguments.

The poor shipping facilities provided by the one railroad that reaches the city will be aired at length and time-worn stories will be told of how a car placed at a local shipping point has lain unmoved for four and eight days and sometimes as many as ten days.

Another point to be decided at the meeting is where the delegates that

THE CLAIMS ARE STILL PILING UP

Obligations of C. W. Pritchard, of Lisbon, Now Reported Likely to Reach $10,000.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special)—The list of C. W. Pritchard's creditors continues to lengthen, and the amount of his delinquencies now amounts to $10,000. He borrowed money wherever he could with the intention of leaving. But one man has been found who is ahead of Pritchard's game, and he has acknowledged he owes Pritchard 50 cents.

Messages have been received from Pritchard by different parties in which he says he will return.

T. B. Granam, the American Tin Plate office manager, said Cyrus W. Pritchard's accounts with the company are all right, with the exception of short pay envelopes. Pritchard has had the handling of the pay roll for some time.

A list in part of Pritchard's creditors, with the amounts as far as can be ascertained, follow: Judge J. G. Moore, $2,300 to $2,500; W. H. Barr, $12.37; Dr. F. T. Moore, $400; Mrs. Ida Eells, groceries; J. B. Lyder, $5.50; H. B. George, Reed Wilcoxen, Dr. Marquis, Lee Coen, Opera House orchestra, $70; Ed Pritchard; Mayor W. G. Farrell.

DUFFY'S ANSWER HAS BEEN PREPARED

Letter Explains to Democrats Why He Cannot Accept Their Nomination.

CONFERENCE AT ALLIANCE

Was Brief And It Was Decided to Let the East Liverpool Man Remain On the Labor Ticket—Canvass For Signatures.

As was exclusively mentioned in this paper yesterday T. J. Duffy's final decision in the matter of accepting the Democratic nomination has been reached and his answer to the Democratic congressional committee has been prepared.

The document was completed last night and will be ready for publication tomorrow.

The answer is quite lengthy, embracing half a dozen sheets of typewritten copy, and is said to contain a very clear explanation of his position as it relates to the Democratic party.

The meeting of labor advocates at Alliance yesterday was held behind closed doors, and nothing could be learned as to the business taken up by them. Those present were: Warren Williamson, Youngstown; E. J. Creedon, Massillon; A. S. Hughes, representing Thomas J. Duffy, of East Liverpool; Charles Bonsall, of Salem; Fred Johnson and Will Kolb, of Alliance.

The session was not a lengthy one, but it is understood it was definitely decided that Mr. Duffy was to remain with the Labor ticket. Aside from this very little was done.

Charles Bonsall, of Salem, was in Canton today, where he went for the purpose of securing names to the petition to be presented to the secretary of state, asking that the Labor ticket be made a part of the official ballot at this fall's election. He is said to be meeting with a reasonable amount of success.

East Liverpool has demonstrated its superiority over Rochester, and consequently is a notch ahead of Pittsburg.

A Chance to Recover.

Nannie Bucey, the little 14 year old girl who met with the terrible accident at the K. T. & K. pottery yesterday, is reported some better today by her attending physician, Dr. W. N. Bailey. He states that she has rested as well as could be expected and that she has some chance for recovery.

DRAGON MUCH IMPROVED

Slav Lad Likely to Get Well—Alleged Assailant Will Get Off Very Easy.

The condition of little Michael Dragon, victim of an assault in the East End last week, is much improved and hopes for his recovery are being entertained. It is likely that nothing more serious than a charge of assault will be preferred against young Robert Kelly, who, it is alleged, struck Dragon.

Prosecuting Attorney Brookes telephoned to Mayor Davidson last evening in regard to the boy's condition and the mayor replied that Dragon had every chance in the world for recovery. That settled the case as far as the present term of court is concerned.

Reported Wedding.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special.)—It is reported from Hanoverton that Dr. A. C. Rideout, a specialist recently of Salem, and Mrs. Anna George have been married. DECISION RESERVED

By Judge Boone in a Case Involving A Widow's Dower Rights.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special)—The case of John S. Atterholt, as administrator of the estate of Samuel Springer, against Kate M. Springer et al., was before Judge Boone yesterday. The question involved was whether the widow is entitled to her dower as against a mechanic's lien. The case has become complicated.

Samuel Springer died leaving a house and lot incumberer with claims for material and labor. Recently the court ordered the property sold for debt. The question then came up as to whether the widow should get her dower before or after the mechanic's lien was satisfied.

The widow filed an answer in court in which she admitted that the dower was subject to lien holders, but filed another in which she maintained her dower should take precedence. Immediately after her first answer, however, the property had been sold, the creditors allege, to their disadvantage. Their contention is, that the filing of her first answer estopped her from further proceedings. Judge Boone has reserved his decision.

Jury Commissioners' Meeting.

Lisbon October 2.—(Special.)—The jury commissioners met here today to arrange for the filling of the jury box for the coming year. The jurymen are to be appointed according to the number of votes in the wards and townships.

FIERCE BATTLE ON OHIO'S BANKS

Shanty-Boat Residents Have a Conflict in Which Several Are Injured.

BAD BLOOD HAS EXISTED

For Some Time And a Spirited Encounter Was the Result—Knives, Rocks And Clubs Said to Have Been Used Quite Freely.

There was trouble on the banks of the Ohio last night. Knives, rocks and clubs were conspicuous missiles in the hands of a well known gang of desperadoes. That one of more persons were not fatally wounded can be credited to only the interference of citizens who were attracted to the scene by the loud and whooping yells of those who participated in the melee.

It was the result of a long standing feud that has existed between members of local shantyboatmen. Jack Brighouse, better known as Kaiser, his wife, Joseph Woolley and son Ralph were the star performers.

For months the elder Woolley and son have been moored in their shanty-boat on the West Virginia side, directly opposite the Brighouse boat. Upon their every trip to this side a war of words has been indulged in by the couples and last night's performance differed only in the use of arms instead of words.

Comanche Indians, it is said by those who heard them, never raised a greater disturbance than did this quartet. They fought like tigers, witnesses say, and all were almost unrecognizable after the fight was stopped. From

FIERCE BATTLE ON OHIO'S BANKS

Shanty-Boat Residents Have a Conflict in Which Several Are Injured.

BAD BLOOD HAS EXISTED

For Some Time And a Spirited Encounter Was the Result—Knives, Rocks And Clubs Said to Have Been Used Quite Freely.

There was trouble on the banks of the Ohio last night. Knives, rocks and clubs were conspicuous missiles in the hands of a well known gang of desperadoes. That one of more persons were not fatally wounded can be credited to only the interference of citizens who were attracted to the scene by the loud and whooping yells of those who participated in the melee.

It was the result of a long standing feud that has existed between members of local shantyboatmen. Jack Brighouse, better known as Kaiser, his wife, Joseph Woolley and son Ralph were the star performers.

For months the elder Woolley and son have been moored in their shanty-boat on the West Virginia side, directly opposite the Brighouse boat. Upon their every trip to this side a war of words has been indulged in by the couples and last night's performance differed only in the use of arms instead of words.

Comanche Indians, it is said by those who heard them, never raised a greater disturbance than did this quartet. They fought like tigers, witnesses say, and all were almost unrecognizable after the fight was stopped. From

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CHAMPION PLANT STARTED.

After many months of waiting brick is at last being made at the new plant of the Champion Fire Brick company, which is located at Rauch's Run, just east of Wellsville. While the plant has been in operation but partially, it is by no means completed, nor will it be finished for many months. When it is completed the plant will have a capacity of 12 kilns that will be ready to top out in a very few days. This plant is the most up-to-date factory of its kind in his part of the country. In building the works, there was but one thing taken into consideration, and that was economy of space. Every foot of room is occupied, and one department is in close proximity to the other. The clay is taken from the mine, and just at the mouth of the mine is located the grinding machinery. From there the clay is carried by large elevators to another part of the building, from where it is permitted to drop into the pug mill. There it is mixed with water, and as this piece of machinery is most modern, a large continuous block or piece of clay is constantly coming from the pug mill, which is forced over small wood rollers to the cutting machine. This machine, in revolving continually, cuts the large block of clay into the bricks, and just at the end of this machine the bricks are placed on iron cars. There cars are packed in to the dry kilns, and after the two tracks in each dry kiln is filled, and a new car is pushed into the kiln at one end, a car of dry bricks is forced out at the other end of the kiln. From this kiln in the plant proper it is but a short distance to the large kilns where the bricks are fired, and the cars of brick are pushed from the dry kilns right to the door of the large kilns outside the plant. In this manner fast work can be accomplished. The new plant, when in full operation, will have a capacity of about 50,000 brick a day, and nothing but brick will be made. It was given out some time ago that sewer pipe would be made at this plant, but such is not the case.

WALKER PLANT TO START.

The American Sewer Pipe company is spending several thousand dollars in improving the Walker plant, which has but one press, will soon be placed in operation. The engine which was formerly used at the East End sewer pipe plant has been installed at Walker, and is about in readiness to operate. There is a small amount of small pipe in the green state at this plant, but it will not be fired until other pipe has been made. In short, there is not enough pipe in the plant now to fill half a kiln. Changes have been made all through the plant. Improvements have been added to the machinery throughout the plant and new platforms have been built alongside the railroad tracks. All this work requires time, and although a goodly number of men are being employed repairing the plant, their work is of a very tedious nature. The one press at these works is capable of making either 2 inch or 24 inch pipe, just as required. The stock yards are also being enlarged, and when the plant is started it will be run steadily. General Manager Hartford and an assistant are engaged in taking stock, and their work will be completed in a day or so. The company will not operate the upper works, formerly used for the making of brick, and this building is fast decaying, and will soon be utterly unfit for use.

FOR CHRISTMAS TIMES.

A number of the general ware potteries of this city are beginning to put new shapes on the market for the Christmas and spring trade. Each year the standard of earthen ware production in this country is assuming a higher degree of excellence. To any one who has been in close touch with the progress of the pottery industry in America, during the past ten years, the improvement in dinner and toilet designs has been very striking. While there is a wide inclination prevalent to turn out large quantities of ware, the quality of the articles produced has not been neglected. The tone of pottery manufacture continues to improve in this country and there are ceramic critics who have stated that general ware productions are of a very high order and in many instances bear favorable comparison with any in the world.

TO START THIS WEEK.

The pottery department of this paper is in receipt of a letter from an official of the Crown Potteries company at Evansville, Ind., in which the fact is made known that ground is to be broken this week for the new pottery to be erected by that company, and which will be known as the National Pottery company. It is the intention of the company to have the plant in operation, if it is possible, not later than the first of the year. With the National China company, Jefferson R. Warner, president in this city, and the National Pottery company, Aaron M. Weil, president, of Evansville, Ind., it seems that the name National is being overworked. The same can be said about the name "Dresden." A firm in this city and the new company at Salineville will use the same name.

TINKERING WITH TARIFF.

The fact that a congressional election is almost at hand is arousing much interest among pottery manufacturers and workers. A manufacturer who is most prominent in politics in this state said a few days ago that the coming congress would no doubt attempt to tinker with the tariff, and no matter what kind of a candidate is elected, unless he is a Republican, he will be compelled to stand up for the national platform of the Democratic party. A candidate on the Democratic ticket, no matter whether he represens an industrial district or not, will be in duty bound to support the planks of the Democratic platform. East Liverpool is now in its most prosperous era, and tinkering with the tariff is not desired by its people.

TOP KILN DRAWN.

The first ware to be taken from the new top kilns at the D. E. McNicol pottery has been drawn and shows excellent results. The company has several top kilns in working order at the present time. By using the tops of the kilns, a full glost kiln is gained every week. While the company has been firing yellow biscuit ware in these kilns in the past, a new plan has been tried, and white biscuit ware is to be fired. The first top kiln of ware to be fired in this manner will be placed within the next few days, and the innovation will without doubt prove a profitable one to the firm. It is said there in not another pottery in the city where white biscuit ware is given its first firing in the top kiln.

NO FRICTION NOW.

For the past few days there has been a slight friction between certain employes of the kiln departments of Laughlin No. 2 and 3, over the formation of the new relief association, but at a meeting which was held on Tuesday, everything was settled to the satisfaction of all concerned. It was rumored the kilnmen at No. 3 did not care to join the association which was formed by the lower floor employes of No. 2, but as the matter has been satisfactorily arranged, everybody appears to be satisfied. The by-laws for the new association are now being printed, and will be ready for distribution in a few days.

A STRANGER IN TOWN.

Visiting at the home of his sons, Walter and William Davidson, on first visit of Mr. Davidson to this city and although he has been here but a few days, he is most favorably impressed with the customs and the potteries of this pottery center. Mr. Davidson's sons are employed at stickers up at the Thompson pottery, having been employed before they came here in the Campbell pottery at Hamilton. The elder Davidson had never seen a pottery in which gas was used for firing kilns until he came to this city and the sight was most interesting. Nothing but yellow ware in made in the Hamilton pottery, and white ware is not made nearer that city than at Quebec. Mr. Davidson will remain in this city several weeks calling upon his numerous friends.

WORKING ON FOUNDATION.

Owing to the wet weather of the past few days not much progress has been made upon the foundation for the new addition that is to be erected by the West End Pottery company. One part of the foundation has been completed, but still there is much more work to be done by the stone masons. It will be several days, it is said before carpenters of other workmen will be able to commence work at this addition, owing to the fact that the stone masons have been somewhat delayed.

CHETWYND STRIKE SETTLED.

After several conferences with the officials of the company, which were held yesterday afternoon and last evening, the fillers-in employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery returned to work this morning. The conference yesterday resulted in a compromise, and the fillers-in at the Globe also returned to work today. Disputes of the same character took place at both plants.

RESIGNED HIS POSITION.

James F. Cochrane, who for some time has been employed in the warehouse at the Brunt pottery, has resigned his position. He has received an offer to become associated with the firm of T. G. Evans & Co., of Pittsburg, as chief warehouseman, and left this morning for that city, to close the deal. Cochrane is one of the best known warehousemen in the city.

HE HAS GONE SOUTH.

Daniel E. McNicol, of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, left today for an extensive business trip through the south. He will be gone several weeks. During the trip he will visit his extensive clay mines in North Carolina, and will also spend a week or more at Lexington, Ky., visiting former friends.

John Roberts, manager of the decorating department of the Brunt pottery, is very ill at his home on Thompson Hill, suffering with typhoid fever. He has been ill for several days, and will not be able to resume his work for several days.

CHANGED HIS POSITION.

Ralph Turner, who has been employed as a glost kilnman at the McNicol pottery for many months, has been transferred to the biscuit bench at the same shop. He commenced work in his new position this week.

STRIKING MINERS FROM PENNSYLVANIA GIVEN WORK.

Did Not Have to Hunt for It, Contractor McLaughlin Engaging Them at Once.

Eleven strangers arrived in this city this morning, and within an hour after they alighted from an eastern train they were given employment by Contractor Thomas McLaughlin, at the rate of $1.75 a day.

These men came direct to this city from the Pennsylvania coal fields where the great coal strike is now in progress, but just how long they will remain here cannot be told. The men do not know themselves. If the great strike is settled within a fortnight it is likely that the miners will return to eastern Pennsylvania to their families.

It will be remembered that this paper told of about 50 striking miners passing through this city last Saturday for Irondale, where they had been employed by General Manager Burnside, of the Norris Coal company. After the 11 men came here this morning they commenced to look for work, and they ran right into it. They took a car for the East End, but got no farther than the power house. There they alighted and the first person they met was Contractor McLaughlin.

The men asked for work, and with open arms, McLaughlin received them. The men were told to get off their best clothes and go to work at once and at the rate of $1.75 a day. Each man was well dressed and under their arms were bundles of working clothes. Some of the younger members of the party had overcoats with them, and there was not one of the party who was not good looking. In fact, they did not have the appearance of being coal miners. But that does not matter.

These men have been given employment, just what they asked for, and there is ample room for others to be employed on the same contract. Additional teams are to be put to work at once on this contract of grading for the Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad company, and if the coal strike lasts much longer it is likely other miners will be sent for by their friends who are now here.

SUMMONS DISREGARDED

East End Young Man Said to Have Disobeyed Behest to Meet Grand Jury.

People of the East End who claim to be in a position to know stated this morning that several young men of the East End who had been summoned to appear before the grand jury at Lisbon today would not be there. Just why these youths dislike to take the trip to the county seat is not stated, but there is one thing sure, the course they are taking may be a most serious one. A few days ago Deputy Sheriff Davidson left a summons at the home of a young man in the East End, but the "lady of the house" thought that it was meant for an older member of the family, and accordingly, Mr. Davidson served it upon the older person by the same name. This reached the ears of Prosecuting Attorney Brookes, and last evening word was sent to the East End authorities to see to it that the young man for whom the summons was intended, appeared at Lisbon this morning.

Relatives of the young man stated today that he would not be at Lisbon, and that he was working as usual. Owing to this fact something interesting may develop in the next few days. Another young of this part of the city left for another state after he received a summons; And as this is not according to law, it is hard to tell what may happen. Matters are beginning to look interesting.

PREPARATIONS FOR FAIR

New Stalls Being Erected And Arrangements Made for Great Number of Horses.

Carpenters have commenced work at Columbian park erecting a hundred or more stalls which will be used during the Tri-State fair, which is to be held at the park within the next few days. The contract for this work was let to Alex Chafin, but he was delayed in starting the work, owing to the inability to secure a sufficient number of workmen. There will be at least 100 horses at the fair, and it is expected that many more stalls than that will be built. A large number of men are at work on the work, and it is thought they will finish early next week.

The officers of the association have secured a number of additional attractions, including several horse that race without either riders or drivers. One of these horses has a mark of 2:05¼.

SURGICAL WORK IN CHINA

Dr. Swan Writes to His Father of Many Operations Performed On Natives.

Rev. J. N. Swan, of the East End, received a letter this morning from his son, who is a physician at Canton, China. The letter stated that a few days ago previous to the writing Dr. Swan had performed many operations upon the natives for the removal of tumors.

Just the day before nine natives were operated upon, and from one of the natives, the letter states that a tumor weighing 40 pounds was removed from the right shoulder of a Chinaman. The tumor was placed in a sack, through which a stick was placed, and carried away on the shoulder of a native. Dr. Swan also stated that in one day he had performed nine operations for the removal of tumors.

Growing Postal Business.

Postmaster Will Baird, of the East End postoffice, completed his report for the business handled during the month of September, this morning. Stamps and other postal matter to the value of $164 was sold, while the money order business amounted to $1,650. This business is largely in excess of that handled during the month of July.

Wedded Quietly.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Truman McCain, on Ohio avenue, East End, at noon yesterday, Miss Anna Meyerhoeffer and Mr. A. E. M. Clark, both of Allegheny, were married. Miss Louise Meyerhoeffer, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Wilbur McCain was best man.

To Appear Against Allison.

Robert Larkins, of the East End, left this morning for Lisbon where he was to appear before the grand jury, in the case of John Allison. It will be remembered that Allison is alleged to have stolen a horse owned by the firm of Larkins & Ferguson, of First avenue, a few months ago.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

A pleasant dance was given last evening by the Philos club in their rooms on First avenue. About 20 couples were present.

James Fulton, of Mulberry street, left this morning for Burgettstown where he will visit the fair, and remain a few days with old friends.

A meeting of the board of stewards of the Erie street M. E. church will be held in the church this evening. Matters of importance are to be considered at the meeting.

Charles Herbert, a well known young man of the East End is about to enter the poultry business. While making a tour through West Virginia a few days ago he purchased several large chickens, sufficient to carry on a chicken farm on a small scale.

The Proper Treatment For a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

New Stalls Beirg Erected And Arrangements Made for Great Number of Horses.

Carpenters have commenced work at Columbian park erecting a hundred or more stalls which will be used during the Tri-State fair, which is to be held at the park within the next few days. The contract for this work was let to Alex Chafin, but he was delayed in starting the work, owing to the inability to secure a sufficient number of workmen. There will be at least 100 horses at the fair, and it is expected that many more stalls than that will be built. A large number of men are at work on the work, and it is thought they will finish early next week.

The officers of the association have secured a number of additional attractions, including several horse that race without either riders or drivers. One of these horses has a mark of 2·05¼.

The tumor was placed in a sack, through which a stick was placed, and carried away on the shoulder of a native. Dr. Swan also stated that in one day he had performed nine operations for the removal of tumors.

The Proper Treatment For a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. The river improvement meeting tonight should be large and enthusiastic. Considering the interest East Liverpool has in seeing the Ohio made navigable from Pittsburg to its mouth, the cry, "On to Cairo," should be taken up and made to echo until the sound reaches the halls of congress. In these days few things that are worth having are obtained without asking for them. The demand for a navigable river is going to be long and loud, and East Liverpool, unless blind to her own interests, should be in the van of the petitioners for it. We should send some of our best citizens to the Parkersburg meeting. It will be an easy matter for them to fortify themselves with arguments that will carry weight, both at the Parkersburg meeting and with the national legislators. The president has placed himself on record as favoring river imprivement, and all friends of the project have excellent reason to be encouraged. A long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and the task will be accomplished much earlier than if the legislators are left to procrastinate.

The action of President Roosevelt, in inviting the anthracite coal operators and the national president of the miners' union to meet him to discuss possible ways and means of ending the great strike, is unprecedented, but that fact does not prove that it is unwise. The trammels of conventionality are something that the president refuses to be bound by. If he sees a chance to do good, he embraces it, regardless of what the world may think or how the action may affect his political fortunes. Thousands of well-meaning people have been urging him to use his good offices to end the strike, and he plainly shows to them that he is willing to do what he can. There can be no politics in the movement, and no harm to any interest can result in the proposed conference. A general acceptance of the president's invitation and a manifestation of the spirit which prompted it may result in benefit to all concerned. It remains to be seen whether the coal operators are utterly careless and indifferent as to the public welfare.

The Democrats in the legislature, acting as a party, can do nothing either for or against code legislation But they can pursue the dog-in-the-manger policy and delay the progress of work which all Ohio is eager to see accomplished. Partisan politics should have no place in providing laws for the government of Ohio cities, but the Democrat who would rather work for the good of the state than for party buncombe is conspicuous by his absence from the general assembly.

In attempting to settle the coal strike during his period of convalescence President Roosevelt has set himself a task which might easily daunt a well but less courageous man.

Michigan is now represented in the United States senate by two Ohio men. Other states which want up-to-date representatives know where to look for the men.

Laura Biggar needn't be discouraged. Think how she will draw as the lady who wasn't satisfied with $700,000 if she goes on the stage again.

AT THE THEATER

For 24 years the Bennett-Moulton company has occupied a place in the very forefront of American amusement enterprises. Certain it is that no repertoire company playing Bradford has even presented such a notable list of plays as "Darkest Russia," "The Captain's Mate," "A Daughter of the South," "Outcasts of Society," "The Pay Train" and "Capital Against Labor." The opening bill is the great comedy-drama, "Darkest Russia," employing the full strength of the company. Reserved seat sale opens Saturday morning.

If a wholesome, honest, cleanly play that alternates pathos and laughter with gatling gun rapidity is what theatergoers want, they will go to see Denman Thompson and George W. Ryer's greatest of all dramas, "Our New Minister," when it comes again to the Grand Friday night. "Our New Minister" was praised in these columns last season when it made its initial appearance here; no other rural play, not even "The Old Homestead" appeals more thoroughly to the masses than this idyl of New England life.

"East Lynne" will be seen at the New Grand opera house on Saturday afternoon and evening of this week. Miss Warren, the star of the piece, has never had an adverse criticism, and the company carries its own scenery. The production is promised to be the best seen here this season.

A good crowd witnessed "Indiana Folks" presented at the Grand last evening. The play was well received and the specialties were especiall pleasing.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

The case of Andy Galm vs. Kate Mader was held yesterday in 'Squire Johnston's court in Chester. Judgment was given in favor of Galm, the defendant not appearing. F. E. Grosshans, attorney for Mrs. Mader, made a motion for a new trial. 'Squire Johnston withheld his decision in this question.

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure."

It is undoubtedly true that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Peede, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

are to be appointed will be instructed to recommend the placing of the dam. The closer to the city that the dam is built the greater the benefits to local interests. It will not matter materially, so far as the navigation is concerned, but when considering the fact that it will require the labor of several hundred men and that for over two years it is a very important point to be considered. If erected in close proximity to the city, it will mean the disbursement of thousands of dollars among East Liverpool citizens. Why should the city not have it? Influential men selected as delegates to the convention can work wonders in this direction.

The names of the delegates have been practically decided upon, but not knowing that they will accept the honor, it is prudent to withhold them. There will be at least three appointed and perhaps five.

Mayor Davidson will call the meeting to order and after stating its object will ask for the nomination of a chairman. Besides the selection of delegates to the convention various committees will be appointed to work in conjunction with the delegates.

Mrs. Willard Say (nee Miss Emma Baker) niece of George S. Goodwin, who has been in this city attending the Fisher-George wedding, returned to her home in Oil City today.

William Earp, employed as grinder at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, left yesterday for New York to take passage for England. He will visit friends in the old country for several weeks.

AT THE THEATER

For 24 years the Bennett-Moulton company has occupied a place in the very forefront of American amusement enterprises. Certain it is that no repertoire company playing Bradford has even presented such a notable list of plays as "Darkest Russia," "The Captain's Mate," "A Daughter of the South," "Outcasts of Society," "The Pay Train" and "Capital Against Labor." The opening bill is the great comedy-drama, "Darkest Russia," employing the full strength of the company. Reserved seat sale opens Saturday morning.

If a wholesome, honest, cleanly play that alternates pathos and laughter with gatling gun rapidity is what theatergoers want, they will go to see Denman Thompson and George W. Ryer's greatest of all dramas, "Our New Minister," when it comes again to the Grand Friday night. "Our New Minister" was praised in these columns last season when it made its initial appearance here; no other rural play, not even "The Old Homestead" appeals more thoroughly to the masses than this idyl of New England life.

"East Lynne" will be seen at the New Grand opera house on Saturday afternoon and evening of this week. Miss Warren, the star of the piece, has never had an adverse criticism, and the company carries its own scenery. The production is promised to be the best seen here this season.

A good crowd witnessed "Indiana Folks" presented at the Grand last evening. The play was well received and the specialties were especiall pleasing.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

The case of Andy Galm vs. Kate Mader was held yesterday in 'Squire Johnston's court in Chester. Judgment was given in favor of Galm, the defendant not appearing. F. E. Grosshans, attorney for Mrs. Mader, made a motion for a new trial. 'Squire Johnston withheld his decision in this question.

Ladies are cordially invited to attend our handsome display of Fall and Winter Millinery, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 2, 3, and 4.

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure."

It is undoubtedly true that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Peede, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

are to be appointed will be instructed to recommend the placing of the dam. The closer to the city that the dam is built the greater the benefits to local interests. It will not matter materially, so far as the navigation is concerned, but when considering the fact that it will require the labor of several hundred men and that for over two years it is a very important point to be considered. If erected in close proximity to the city, it will mean the disbursement of thousands of dollars among East Liverpool citizens. Why should the city not have it? Influential men selected as delegates to the convention can work wonders in this direction.

The names of the delegates have been practically decided upon, but not knowing that they will accept the honor, it is prudent to withhold them. There will be at least three appointed and perhaps five.

Mayor Davidson will call the meeting to order and after stating its object will ask for the nomination of a chairman. Besides the selection of delegates to the convention various committees will be appointed to work in conjunction with the delegates.

WELLSVILLE

A THING OF THE PAST

Foot Ball Team of Ex-High School Boys Reported Disbanded.

The Ex-High School foot ball team, which was organized only a few evenings ago, and which was to be the representative team of Wellsville, is now a thing of the past.

The team averaged about 150 pounds and was composed of the following strong players: Holland, McClure, Daughaday, Anderson, Foltz, Cummins, McLain, Blue, Cope, Heaken, McConnell and Knox. The evening that they organized, holding their meeting in the C. & P. reading rooms, they elected Frank McLain manager and W. E. Knox captain.

The aggregation included some of the very best amateur players in the county, and had they played with any outside team would have undoubtedly held their own.

The team broke up for the simple reason that the men could not get together for practice. It seems that most of the men are employed during the day, while two or three of them are employed at night. For this reason alone they were unable to get together and thought it therefore best to disband, as they were unable to accept any challenges which might come in.

Mr. McLain stated a few evenings ago that he had arranged with several small colleges near here for games. He expected to make arrangements for a game within a few days with the Juniata club of Beaver Falls, but will now have to drop all of these engagements.

The only representative team which this city now supports is the Bruno Athletic club team, which is under the management of Edward Bunting. This team is very light, only averaging about 130 pounds.

It has already challenged outside teams and will arrange for a game the first part of next week.

THE POLES MUST GO

Council Committee Taking Action to Rid Streets of Unnecessary Obstructions.

At the regular meeting of council next Monday evening the matter of ridding the city thoroughfares of unnecessary electric light, telegraph and telephone poles will probably be disposed of. The pole committee of council held a meeting recently and decided that the poles, which are blocking the city streets and which are not in the least necessary, must be removed. The matter was brought before council some time ago and was left in the hands of the pole committee. Now that it has taken action council will likely dispose of it.

W. G. Stewart, who resides on Broadway, at one time handed in a complaint to council calling attention to the fact that there were too many poles in the front, and on the sides of his property. He asked that something be done in the matter. While there are five poles surrounding his property, two would very readily answer the purpose. Mr. Stewart's complaint is only one of the many that have been received by council. The unnecessary poles are considered a nuisance.

REPLACING PAVING

Street Railway Company Is Having the Work Done Which Council Ordered.

In accordance with an agreement made by Manager Healy, of the East Liverpool street railway, and council at the last meeting, the work of replacing the street paving along the line of route of the street railroad is now being done by Contractor Rinehart's men.

Although the paver is replacing new brick where the old ones were taken up, the new pavement is said not to be as secure and sound as the old. Unless it is rolled after the brick are laid and the sand is thrown over it, council will probably take action compelling that work to be done. The pavers have now completed most of the paving except a long stretch in the West End.

FREE DELIVERY

Postoffice Inspector Looking Over Wellsville With View to Installing It.

E. M. Norris, a postoffice inspector, today inspected the local postoffice with a view toward establishing a free delivery in the city and also to settle upon the rent which the postoffice department will hereafter pay.

Regarding the free delivery, Postmaster Snowden has recently reported that the postoffice receipts this year at this time are $500 more than they were last year at the same time. Last year the receipts fell short only $1,500 to the required amount of $10,000, which would give the city free delivery. From the present outlook this year the business will nearly reach the required amount, and what little is short may be made up through merchants purchasing stamps.

Mr. Norris stated this morning that if the city had free delivery it would have to remove the postoffice into a much larger room.

ON TO CAIRO MEETING

Wellsville Will Have One as Soon as City Hall Repairs Are Finished.

As soon as the repairs upon the hall in the third floor of the city building, have been completed, an "On to Cairo" public meeting will be arranged for. Mayor Fogo has had this movement in hand for some time and means to use all of his power and influence in pushing the matter along.

The meeting to be held will be open to every one, and a packed hall is assured for that occasion. Out of town speakers will be secured. The repair work will be completed about the 15th of this month.

Fined Him $13.60.

Mayor Fogo last evening fined Edward Henshaw $13.60. Henshaw was arrested yesterday by Officer John Henthorn on a charge of resisting an officer. It seems that the Henshaws at their home in the extreme West End were raising quite a disturbance. The officer found that Pres Henshaw was the cause of the disturbance, and upon trying to take him was resisted by the balance of the family and more forcibly by Ed Henshaw.

Notes of the Unions.

The Clerks' union held its regular meeting last evening in Potters' hall, on Ninth street. About one-half of the members were present. No business of especial interest was transacted. No action was taken in the matter of holding a banquet. The regular weekly meeting of the Carpenters' union was held last evening, but only routine business was transacted.

Veterans' Reunion.

SOUTH SIDE

ATTACKED BY BEES

R. E. Allison Robbed Them of Their Honey And They Retaliated.

R. E. Allison is suffering from a badly swollen hand, the result of an attack upon him by an angry swarm of bees. Early in the season Mr. Allison located a bee tree in the woods near his home. He bided his time until he thought the season far enough advanced for a good crop of honey and then sallied forth and felled the tree.

From an opening in the side of the trunk, he was carefully extracting the honey when the bees, aroused from their peaceful slumbers, rushed out and painfully stung him.

Mr. Allison finally killed most of the bees and made off with his spoil, 40 pounds of honey.

CHESTER NOTES.

John Cunningham has recovered from typhoid fever and is back in his store.

Sheriff C. F. Allison, of New Cumberland, was in the city yesterday collecting taxes.

Miss Edna Joseph and Miss Florence Manning will teach in the new school rooms.

The semi-annual taxes of the county are due and Sheriff Allison has been busy collecting them.

CHALLENGE ISSUED

ROCHESTER INVITED TO MEET WALSH'S TEAM AGAIN.

Each Club Must Put Up $500, the Money to Go to the Victors.

Angered because the Rochester base ball team refused to play out the series scheduled to decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and northeastern Ohio and fully confident that his team can best the Pennsylvania boys under any circumstances, Manager Charles Walsh, through a Pittsburg paper this morning challenged the team of the white feathers for another series of three games.

The challenge, if accepted by the management of the Rochester team, will mean that each team must put up $500, to go to the one winning the majority of games. It also includes the gate receipts of the entire number of games. To make the challenge bona fide Manager Walsh enclosed a check for $50. He thus showed that he means business and has undying confidence in his aggregation.

Local fans will await an answer from Rochester with anxiety. It is almost an assured fact, however, that the challenge will not be accepted, as Rochester has already seen that when against East Liverpool it is against the real thing. Its players will likely do as they have done heretofore—do an unlimited amount of blowing, but fail to come up with the cash.

The following is the challenge verbatim as published in the Pittsburg Post this morning:

"We, the East Liverpool base ball club, hereby challenge the Rochester, Pa., base ball club to play us a series of three games for $500 a side and the entire gate receipts of the three games, the first game to be played in East Liverpool, the second in Rochester and if a third game is necessary said third game to be played on neutral grounds. Each team to use the same players that played in the games on September 26 and 27, 1902, provided, however, that either team may substitute any player who has taken part in not less than five games with that team during the season of 1902. The sporting editor of the Pittsburg Post to act as stakeholder and to select the umpire for the games.

Wellsville Will Have One as Soon as City Hall Repairs Are Finished.

As soon as the repairs upon the hall in the third floor of the city building, have been completed, an "On to Cairo" public meeting will be arranged for. Mayor Fogo has had this movement in hand for some time and means to use all of his power and influence in pushing the matter along.

The meeting to be held will be open to every one, and a packed hall is assured for that occasion. Out of town speakers will be secured. The repair work will be completed about the 15th of this month.

Fined Him $13.60.

Mayor Fogo last evening fined Edward Henshaw $13.60. Henshaw was arrested yesterday by Officer John Henthorn on a charge of resisting an officer. It seems that the Henshaws at their home in the extreme West End were raising quite a disturbance. The officer found that Pres Henshaw was the cause of the disturbance, and upon trying to take him was resisted by the balance of the family and more forcibly by Ed Henshaw.

ATTACKED BY BEES

R. E. Allison Robbed Them of Their Honey And They Retaliated.

R. E. Allison is suffering from a badly swollen hand, the result of an attack upon him by an angry swarm of bees. Early in the season Mr. Allison located a bee tree in the woods near his home. He bided his time until he thought the season far enough advanced for a good crop of honey and then sallied forth and felled the tree.

From an opening in the side of the trunk, he was carefully extracting the honey when the bees, aroused from their peaceful slumbers, rushed out and painfully stung him.

Mr. Allison finally killed most of the bees and made off with his spoil, 40 pounds of honey.

CHALLENGE ISSUED

ROCHESTER INVITED TO MEET WALSH'S TEAM AGAIN.

Each Club Must Put Up $500, the Money to Go to the Victors.

Angered because the Rochester base ball team refused to play out the series scheduled to decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and northeastern Ohio and fully confident that his team can best the Pennsylvania boys under any circumstances, Manager Charles Walsh, through a Pittsburg paper this morning challenged the team of the white feathers for another series of three games.

The challenge, if accepted by the management of the Rochester team, will mean that each team must put up $500, to go to the one winning the majority of games. It also includes the gate receipts of the entire number of games. To make the challenge bona fide Manager Walsh enclosed a check for $50. He thus showed that he means business and has undying confidence in his aggregation.

Local fans will await an answer from Rochester with anxiety. It is almost an assured fact, however, that the challenge will not be accepted, as Rochester has already seen that when against East Liverpool it is against the real thing. Its players will likely do as they have done heretofore—do an unlimited amount of blowing, but fail to come up with the cash.

The following is the challenge verbatim as published in the Pittsburg Post this morning:

"We, the East Liverpool base ball club, hereby challenge the Rochester, Pa., base ball club to play us a series of three games for $500 a side and the entire gate receipts of the three games, the first game to be played in East Liverpool, the second in Rochester and if a third game is necessary said third game to be played on neutral grounds. Each team to use the same players that played in the games on September 26 and 27, 1902, provided, however, that either team may substitute any player who has taken part in not less than five games with that team during the season of 1902. The sporting editor of the Pittsburg Post to act as stakeholder and to select the umpire for the games.

"CHARLES M. WALSH,
"Manager."

IN WESTERN WILDS

LEETONIA MAN GOT LOST AND WANDERED FOR DAYS.

Startling Adventures of John Flooding While Hunting in Colorado.

Some time ago Fred Wiedmeyer, who had been a druggist in Leetonia, closed out his business interests there and started with a party on a hunting trip through the wilds of Colorado. This was about two months ago, and after he had been in the west for a month he wrote to another Leetonia man, John A. Flooding, who is a butcher in that town, telling him of the pleasures of the trip and inviting him to come on and join the party. This Flooding decided to do.

The party was composed of Dr. H. M. Schuffel, of Canton; Charles Sell and Thomas Wolf, of Osnaburg, and Fred Wiedmeyer and John Flooding, the two Leetonia men. The party went to the home of Zach Doll at New Castle, Col., Doll being an old friend and a former Canton man.

Last week letters were received in Canton, written by Charles Sell, a member of the party, which caused the greatest alarm among the friends of Flooding. In brief, it stated that while the party was out on a camping expedition in the mountains, some 20 miles from New Castle, Flooding had mysteriously been lost, and that after a search of several days the party had been unable to locate him. The letter expressed fears that he had fallen prey to grizzly bears or other wild beasts.

A copy of the New Castle (Col.) Nonpareil of last Wednesday states that Flooding returned to camp on the previous Monday. He had been driven a distance of 32 miles by a Miller Creek ranchman. Had Mr. Flooding not been a very plucky and sensible young man, the story would have had a different ending. It is no joke for anyone to be wandering around in a heavy storm in a strange country without food for 60 hours, as many, getting bewildered and confused, would have met a more serious mishap, but Flooding kept his wits about him and finally pulled out at a ranch on Miller Creek, where he got food and conveyance back to friends.

THE FIRST CONCESSION

For a Street Railway in the Cuban Republic Granted to Youngstown Men.

Youngstown, October 2.—The first public service concession granted by the republic of Cuba and the city of Havana was made to the syndicate of capitalists headed by Messrs. W. H. Park and H. G. Hamilton, of this city.

A cablegram to them from J. D. Milligan, now at Havana, announces that the long delayed electric railway concession had been granted in full and nothing now remains but to begin the work of construction.

Some time ago the syndicate, including Youngstown, New York and Cleveland capitalists, secured a right from the Cuban government to build an electric line in the other portions of the city, the name of the company being the Havana & Jaminitas Railway company. It was desired to extend the line later into the business part of the city and the later concession has now been approved by the government railway commission, which consists of the cabinet of President Palma. The city council of Havana had already granted the right.

This extension means that the lines will pass on two sides of the presidential palace, along the steamship wharves, and in fact will penetrate the best business portion of the city. It will also extend 10 or 12 miles into the country. It was a great triumph for Youngstown diplomacy and for American pluck and brains.

Mr. Hamilton said: "We shall begin to build the line at once, just as soon as we can get the material there. We shall start construction in the outskirts of the city first. Mr. Milligan will sail for home Saturday."

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, October 2.—Rev. W. H. McMaster, of Blairsville, lectured in the United Presbyterian church Tuesday on moral reform.

Mrs. J. W. Reilly, of Wellsville, a representative of a fire insurance company of that city, was here looking after business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson, of this town, drove over to the village of Scroggsfield last Monday and were the guests of his wife's sister, Mrs. Andrew George.

At a recent congregational meeting of the United Presbyterian church it was voted to allow the pastor, Rev. F. E. Dean, to supply the congregation of Grant's Hill every third Sunday afternoon with preaching at 2 o'clock until January 1.

The Dorrance brothers will move their saw mill this week from its present location on the farm of R. B. Sharp to the farm of Alexander Hart.

John Dennis, an ex-soldier of the Twenty-sixth Ohio battery, had an increase of pension, up to $24 per month.

Mrs. Clay, of Massillon, after a week's visit with friends in Salineville, has returned home.

McCartney, the tinner, moved his store and household goods to the Hogue building Tuesday.

The common pleas court sent invitations to about 40 Salineville citizens to appear Wednesday.

An electrical storm passed over our town Tuesday night about 8 o'clock with a heavy rainfall.

The party was composed of Dr. H. M. Schuffel, of Canton; Charles Sell and Thomas Wolf, of Osnaburg, and Fred Wiedmeyer and John Flooding, the two Leetonia men. The party went to the home of Zach Doll at New Castle, Col., Doll being an old friend and a former Canton man.

Last week letters were received in Canton, written by Charles Sell, a member of the party, which caused the greatest alarm among the friends of Flooding. In brief, it stated that while the party was out on a camping expedition in the mountains, some 20 miles from New Castle, Flooding had mysteriously been lost, and that after a search of several days the party had been unable to locate him. The letter expressed fears that he had fallen prey to grizzly bears or other wild beasts.

A copy of the New Castle (Col.) Nonpareil of last Wednesday states that Flooding returned to camp on the previous Monday. He had been driven a distance of 32 miles by a Miller Creek ranchman. Had Mr. Flooding not been a very plucky and sensible young man, the story would have had a different ending. It is no joke for anyone to be wandering around in a heavy storm in a strange country without food for 60 hours, as many, getting bewildered and confused, would have met a more serious mishap, but Flooding kept his wits about him and finally pulled out at a ranch on Miller Creek, where he got food and conveyance back to friends.

THE FIRST CONCESSION

For a Street Railway in the Cuban Republic Granted to Youngstown Men.

Youngstown, October 2.—The first public service concession granted by the republic of Cuba and the city of Havana was made to the syndicate of capitalists headed by Messrs. W. H. Park and H. G. Hamilton, of this city.

A cablegram to them from J. D. Milligan, now at Havana, announces that the long delayed electric railway concession had been granted in full and nothing now remains but to begin the work of construction.

Some time ago the syndicate, including Youngstown, New York and Cleveland capitalists, secured a right from the Cuban government to build an electric line in the other portions of the city, the name of the company being the Havana & Jaminitas Railway company. It was desired to extend the line later into the business part of the city and the later concession has now been approved by the government railway commission, which consists of the cabinet of President Palma. The city council of Havana had already granted the right.

This extension means that the lines will pass on two sides of the presidential palace, along the steamship wharves, and in fact will penetrate the best business portion of the city. It will also extend 10 or 12 miles into the country. It was a great triumph for Youngstown diplomacy and for American pluck and brains.

Mr. Hamilton said: "We shall begin to build the line at once, just as soon as we can get the material there. We shall start construction in the outskirts of the city first. Mr. Milligan will sail for home Saturday."

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, October 2.—Rev. W. H. McMaster, of Blairsville, lectured in the United Presbyterian church Tuesday on moral reform.

Mrs. J. W. Reilly, of Wellsville, a representative of a fire insurance company of that city, was here looking after business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson, of this town, drove over to the village of Scroggsfield last Monday and were the guests of his wife's sister, Mrs. Andrew George.

At a recent congregational meeting of the United Presbyterian church it was voted to allow the pastor, Rev. F. E. Dean, to supply the congregation of Grant's Hill every third Sunday afternoon with preaching at 2 o'clock until January 1.

The Dorrance brothers will move their saw mill this week from its present location on the farm of R. B. Sharp to the farm of Alexander Hart.

John Dennis, an ex-soldier of the Twenty-sixth Ohio battery, had an increase of pension, up to $24 per month.

Mrs. Clay, of Massillon, after a week's visit with friends in Salineville, has returned home.

McCartney, the tinner, moved his store and household goods to the Hogue building Tuesday.

The common pleas court sent invitations to about 40 Salineville citizens to appear Wednesday.

An electrical storm passed over our town Tuesday night about 8 o'clock with a heavy rainfall.

FIFTY YEARS A PRINTER

Jesse Harris, Formerly of This City, Has Set Type Since 1852.

Salem, October 2.—It was 50 years ago on September 28, 1852, that Jesse Harris, who resides at 622 McKinley avenue, and is now an employe of the T. J. Walton Printing company on Vine street entered the printing business. He learned the case in this city at the office of the Anti-Slavery Bugle, which was conducted by John Hudson. Mr Harris was at that time 17 years of age, and is now probably the oldest printer in working harness in the state. He is still an expert.

In May, 1861, he started the first paper that was published in East Liverpool. It was a weekly and was called the East Liverpool Mercury. Mr. Harris was editor of the publication and continued in that capacity for two years. Mr. Harris has been an employe of Mr. Walton for many years. He has lost but few days on account of sickness since he learned the trade half a century ago.

TRADES COUNCIL TO TAKE NO ACTION

That Body Decides to Take No Steps to Keep Farmers From Selling Meat.

INTERESTS OF WORKERS

Are Not Likely to Be Promoted By Such Action—A Variety of Other Matters Discussed And Disposed of Last Night.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of Trades Council last night but the interest was none the less manifest.

One of the most important actions taken was the passage of a resolution requesting that the council take no action with reference to the licensing of farmers and hucksters who peddle meat in this city. The resolutions follows:

"Resolved, That the members of the City Council of the city of East Liverpool be asked to refrain from passing any resolution introduced by the butchers asking for the prevention of the sale of meats by the farmers of this vicinity. It is considered that the provisions of the ordinance asked for will be contrary to the national constitution, and that if the council looks to the interests of the laboring people they will not take action in regard to the request."

The secretary of the council was instructed to send a communication to the city council notifying them of the stand taken by Trades Council.

The plumbers of Norfolk asked for assistance and they were voted $5.

The garment workers of Marietta reported that the Union Overall company, of that city, was unfair, and the delegates to the council were instructed to look out for the same.

The Shingle Weavers' union, of Tacoma, Wash., reported on two shingle firms that were non-union. A committee was appointed to see that the shingles were not used in this city.

The laundry workers of Saginaw Mich., have been having considerable trouble and they explained in a communication that they were short of funds on account of a strike among the miners of the district. A donation of $3 was ordered.

The Marine Trades Council, of New York and vicinity, is active in the behalf of Capt. J. A. Smith, to take the place of Admiral Melville, who is about to resign. Petitions have already been sent to the president in regard to the appointment and the secretary of the Trades Council was instructed to petition the senator and congressman of this district to advocate the appointment of Captain Smith.

The Central Labor union, Milwaukee, presented a communication asking for the formation of a union, which from appearance would be a rival of the American Federation of Labor The communication was laid over.

A statement was received to the effect that C. Heinman, a local bartender, who had been accused from Pittsburg of violating his obligation in the electrical workers' union, had appeared before the union where he had committed his offense and paid the necessary fine and had been reinstated. The ban that had been placed on him in this city was lifted.

Six months per capita tax was ordered paid by the secretary to the American Federation of Labor.

Treasurer Anderson made the following report from the beginning of his term: Receipts, $883.23; disbursements, $373.70; balance, $509.53.

A communication was received in regard to the appointment of a delegate to the national meeting of the American Federation of Labor, but the proposition was laid over until the next meeting of the council.

CHILDREN'S RECORD

Of Books Will Show Class of Literature Popular With Them.

Miss Baker, librarian of the Carnegie Public Library, who is ever engaged in interesting the children as well as the other readers, has designed a reading record for the children, which is not only novel but very useful.

These little record booklets will be distributed to the children in the public schools, in order that each child may have one. There is a place for the child's name, age and address, also for each month of the year. Beneath each month in five spaces where may be written the names of the books read during the month.

If the book read appeals to the child as being very interesting the reader is requested to mark on the book record the letter "v," and if merely interesting the letter "i," but if they do not care for the book at all the letter "n" is marked after the name of the book.

By this means the librarian will be enabled to classify more correctly the books which are especially interesting to the children.

Salem, October 2.—At the opening of the W. C. T. U. state convention Linsey Teegarden, of this city, welcomed the visitors and an interesting program was carried out.

Mrs. H. B. Wisner, state secretary, gave a report upon the work of the L. T. L. for the past year. The total membership in the state is 50,000, with 1,516 companies scattered over the state. Hamilton county was reported as the banner county, having secured 89 new members within the year. In 1901, 46 new companies were organized in Ohio, and the honor roll, consisting of members who have signed the triple pledge, agreeing not to drink, swear or smoke, has reached 3,336.

Prof. R. E. Rayman today made the announcement that all the High School students who wished to attend the lectures included in the University work would be given tickets for the lecture free of charge. This is considered a rare treat, by reason of the fine lectures which will be delivered by Prof. Sparks, and the students of the High School will probably show their appreciation of this golden opportunity by a full attendance at every lecture.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism and that is to remove the cause of the disease. Rheumatism is a result of an excess of uric acid in the blood. Uric acid is formed by diseased kidneys. BLOOD WINE compels the kidneys to perform their work, thus stopping the flow of uric acid and absolutely curing rheumatism. Mrs. M. J. McCrillis, 434 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., says: "I suffered intensely from rheumatism in my hip. After taking five bottles of BLOOD WINE my general health greatly improved, and I am now well."

DOWNWARD COURSE

Fast Being Realized By East Liverpool People.

Daily increasing 'till the back is lame and weak.
Urinary disorders quickly follow.
Diabetes and finally Bright's disease.
This is the downward course of kidney ills.
Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a local citizen.

Mrs. Mount, of 165 Fourth street, says: "If weakness across the loins and sharp pains in the back are any indication of kidney complaint, then I had it. I knew what caused the trouble, but how to check it was a mystery until my husband procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy for himself. The result in his case was so satisfactory that I used two or three boxes. They cured me. At least up to the present date there has been no symptons of a recurrence."

TRADES COUNCIL TO TAKE NO ACTION

That Body Decides to Take No Steps to Keep Farmers From Selling Meat.

INTERESTS OF WORKERS

Are Not Likely to Be Promoted By Such Action—A Variety of Other Matters Discussed And Disposed of Last Night.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of Trades Council last night but the interest was none the less manifest.

One of the most important actions taken was the passage of a resolution requesting that the council take no action with reference to the licensing of farmers and hucksters who peddle meat in this city. The resolutions follows:

"Resolved, That the members of the City Council of the city of East Liverpool be asked to refrain from passing any resolution introduced by the butchers asking for the prevention of the sale of meats by the farmers of this vicinity. It is considered that the provisions of the ordinance asked for will be contrary to the national constitution, and that if the council looks to the interests of the laboring people they will not take action in regard to the request."

The secretary of the council was instructed to send a communication to the city council notifying them of the stand taken by Trades Council.

The plumbers of Norfolk asked for assistance and they were voted $5.

The garment workers of Marietta reported that the Union Overall company, of that city, was unfair, and the delegates to the council were instructed to look out for the same.

The Shingle Weavers' union, of Tacoma, Wash., reported on two shingle firms that were non-union. A committee was appointed to see that the shingles were not used in this city.

The laundry workers of Saginaw, Mich., have been having considerable trouble and they explained in a communication that they were short of funds on account of a strike among the miners of the district. A donation of $3 was ordered.

The Marine Trades Council, of New York and vicinity, is active in the behalf of Capt. J. A. Smith, to take the place of Admiral Melville, who is about to resign. Petitions have already been sent to the president in regard to the appointment and the secretary of the Trades Council was instructed to petition the senator and congressman of this district to advocate the appointment of Captain Smith.

The Central Labor union, Milwaukee, presented a communication asking for the formation of a union, which from appearance would be a rival of the American Federation of Labor. The communication was laid over.

A statement was received to the effect that C. Heinman, a local bartender, who had been accused from Pittsburg of violating his obligation in the electrical workers' union, had appeared before the union where he had committed his offense and paid the necessary fine and had been reinstated. The ban that had been placed on him in this city was lifted.

Six months per capita tax was ordered paid by the secretary to the American Federation of Labor.

Treasurer Anderson made the following report from the beginning of his term: Receipts, $883.23; disbursements, $373.70; balance, $509.53.

A communication was received in regard to the appointment of a delegate to the national meeting of the American Federation of Labor, but the proposition was laid over until the next meeting of the council.

CHILDREN'S RECORD

Of Books Will Show Class of Literature Popular With Them.

Miss Baker, librarian of the Carnegie Public Library, who is ever engaged in interesting the children as well as the other readers, has designed a reading record for the children, which is not only novel but very useful.

These little record booklets will be distributed to the children in the public schools, in order that each child may have one. There is a place for the child's name, age and address, also for each month of the year. Beneath each month in five spaces where may be written the names of the books read during the month.

If the book read appeals to the child as being very interesting the reader is requested to mark on the book record the letter "v," and if merely interesting the letter "i," but if they do not care for the book at all the letter "n," is marked after the name of the book.

By this means the librarian will be enabled to classify more correctly the books which are especially interesting to the children.

Salem, October 2.—At the opening of the W. C. T. U. state convention Linsey Teegarden, of this city, welcomed the visitors and an interesting program was carried out.

Mrs. H. B. Wisner, state secretary, gave a report upon the work of the L. T. L. for the past year. The total membership in the state is 50,000, with 1,516 companies scattered over the state. Hamilton county was reported as the banner county, having secured 89 new members within the year. In 1901, 46 new companies were organized in Ohio, and the honor roll, consisting of members who have signed the triple pledge, agreeing not to drink, swear or smoke, has reached 3,336.

Prof. R. E. Rayman today made the announcement that all the High School students who wished to attend the lectures included in the University work would be given tickets for the lecture free of charge. This is considered a rare treat, by reason of the fine lectures which will be delivered by Prof. Sparks, and the students of the High School will probably show their appreciation of this golden opportunity by a full attendance at every lecture.

AN OPEN SECRET.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism and that is to remove the cause of the disease. Rheumatism is a result of an excess of uric acid in the blood. Uric acid is formed by diseased kidneys. BLOOD WINE compels the kidneys to perform their work, thus stopping the flow of uric acid and absolutely curing rheumatism. Mrs. M. J. McCrillis, 434 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., says: "I suffered intensely from rheumatism in my hip. After taking five bottles of BLOOD WINE my general health greatly improved, and I am now well."

WON THE PIANO

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS GET THE BEAUTIFUL PRIZE.

Over 20,000 Ahead of the Firemen in the Contest Just Ended.

Colors flying in a grand stand finish the Knights of Columbus reached the wire last evening far ahead of any competitor and as a result won the Thompson prize piano which has been so ardently worked for since early July by about twenty local societies and organizations.

At the conclusion of the counting of the votes by Mayor Davidson, Chief Thompson, W. B. Lewis, Jacob Weisend, James Bauman, George and Thomas Betteridge, the committee of judges appointed at the beginning of the contest, it was found that the Knights of Columbus were easy winners, they having secured 104,762 votes, that number exceeding the next highest, those collected by the members of the city's fire department, by 21,020 votes

The firemen made a brave fight for the prize, and for weeks it looked as if they were sure of winning but when the last heat was finished the Knights demonstrated that they had been working just a little harded than their close seconds.

The prize, which is beautiful and of the finest material, was turned over to the winners today. They are to be congratulated on their success.

It is not known at what time the store was broken into, but it was probably about three o'clock this morning. Mr. McCutcheon's loss will not amount to over $5.

Mr. Bloom's store was probably the first to be entered, and it was from there that the most property was taken. About 12 o'clock, Mrs. C. F. Paulley, who keeps a cafe next to Bloom's, heard several men prowling around the house, but gave the matter no thought, as people often come there late at night to get a lunch. Her doors and windows were tried, but no entrance was effected. Mrs. Paulley heard the men tramping back and forth, and from the sounds made, judges that there were probably half a dozen of them. She heard the sounds coming from Bloom's store but as Mr. Bloom does not retire early as a rule she was not excited over the fact

Mr. Bloom's store presented a sorry appearance this morning. Show cases were torn up. Goods scattered and windows open. The gang pried open the side window of the store with a chisel found upon the premises. The desk was first broken open, and the contents scattered about over the floor. The key to the front door was taken from the desk and thrown out of the window. It was found this morning quite a distance from the house. The robbers were evidently much disappointed at not finding money in the desk.

The gang got about $50 worth of money from Bloom's store, besides a large amount of clothing, suits, mackintosches, shoes, etc. Mr. Bloom cannot state exactly how much was taken, but $200 will probably not cover the total loss.

From Bloom's store, the theives went to the store of the Chester Grocery company. The back window was again the place through which they climbed. N. B. Rowley, the proprietor of the store, had taken all the money from the drawer with the exception of a plugged nickel, and a cent. The nickel was taken from the drawer but was laid upon the counter. The men helped themselves to a handful of tobies, but took nothing else. They opened the ice chest, but again they met with a frost. (joax) Money was very plainly the object of their visit, and not finding this they made their escape.

The gang was very probably for big game. Sheriff Allison, of New Cumberland, had been collecting taxes all day, and had considerable money about his person. It is thought, by most people, that Mr. Allison was the man for whom the gang was searching. Mr. Allison sometimes leaves the money in the safe at the postoffice and the thieves probably thought to crack the safe, and make off with a rich haul.

a point half way up the bank to the river and then to the boat they tumbled.

Brighouse, it would seem, would have the worst of such an engagement, owing to having but one strong arm and leg, but such was not the case. He not only handled them to perfection, but had an uncontrollable advantage, helped by his wife. Howling fiercely, it is said, that she used her hands and teeth with admirable results. The Woolleys, it is alleged, bear marks of her finger nails on their faces and their hair of their heads was given vigorous jerks.

When on the verge of topping into the river the quartet was interrupted. The fighters then separated and at long distances swore what the result would have been had then been allowed to fight it out. The Woolleys are of fighting stock, but they have close seconds in the Kaisers, and it is very likely that upon their next meeting blood will be spilled.

An eye witness to the fight stated this morning that he intended making information against the entire bunch but the mayor has not yet been approached.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS GET THE BEAUTIFUL PRIZE.

Over 20,000 Ahead of the Firemen in the Contest Just Ended.

Colors flying in a grand stand finish the Knights of Columbus reached the wire last evening far ahead of any competitor and as a result won the Thompson prize piano which has been so ardently worked for since early July by about twenty local societies and organizations.

At the conclusion of the counting of the votes by Mayor Davidson, Chief Thompson, W. B. Lewis, Jacob Weisend, James Bauman, George and Thomas Betteridge, the committee of judges appointed at the beginning of the contest, it was found that the Knights of Columbus were easy winners, they having secured 104,762 votes, that number exceeding the next highest, those collected by the members of the city's fire department, by 21,020 votes

The firemen made a brave fight for the prize, and for weeks it looked as if they were sure of winning but when the last heat was finished the Knights demonstrated that they had been working just a little harded than their close seconds.

The prize, which is beautiful and of the finest material, was turned over to the winners today. They are to be congratulated on their success.

It is not known at what time the store was broken into, but it was probably about three o'clock this morning. Mr. McCutcheon's loss will not amount to over $5.

Mr. Bloom's store was probably the first to be entered, and it was from there that the most property was taken. About 12 o'clock, Mrs. C. F. Paulley, who keeps a cafe next to Bloom's, heard several men prowling around the house, but gave the matter no thought, as people often come there late at night to get a lunch. Her doors and windows were tried, but no entrance was effected. Mrs. Paulley heard the men tramping back and forth, and from the sounds made, judges that there were probably half a dozen of them. She heard the sounds coming from Bloom's store, but as Mr. Bloom does not retire early as a rule she was not excited over the fact.

ATTEND THE "ON TO CAIRO" MEETING AT CITY HALL TONIGHT.

THREE STORES RAIDED BY BOLD BURGLARS OVER IN CHESTER

A Gang Visited Clothing Store, Drug Store and Grocery—S. Bloom Was the Greatest Loser.

All Chester is excited over a daring robbery, which took place there last night. Theree stores suffered from the depredations of the gang. C. T. McCutchison's drug store, the Chester Grocery company's store and S. Bloom's furnishing store were broken into.

The gang is very probably the same which has been operating in East Liverpool. The burglars made an attempt to force an entrance into the store of Allison & Hobbs but were frightened away by the occupants of the store. Mr. Allison heard a noise at the stable door, but he paid no attention to it, thinking it was made by the horse. It was afterwards found that the thieves had pried the staple from the door.

From the stable the gang probably expected to gain an entrance to the store room, and thence into the post-office, where the safe is kept.

At McCutcheon's store, the back door was first tried, and an attempt made to climb in over the transom. Failing in this the side window was pried up and from there the entrance was made.

The gang carried the cash register out through the back door and over into a nearby field, where it was unscrewed, and the contents, amounting to $1.75 was taken. Mr. McCutcheon's trunk was rifled and a small amount of money was taken from it.

Mr. McCutcheon had quite a sum of money in his room up stairs, but the theives made no attempt to go up the stairs. Some of the stolen money was found on the ground near the register.

DISTINCT VICTORY GAINED BY LABOR

House Adopted Amended Compulsory Arbitration Act After Much Debate.

SENATORS HAVE A SCRAP

And the Bill for the Repeal of the Jones Arc Light Bill Is Put to Sleep—Legislative Session Nearing the Close.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, October 2.—Labor scored a distinct victory in the house yesterday afternoon when that body by a substantial majority adopted the Guerin compulsory arbitration amendment after it had been amended by Willis, of Hardin, so as to apply to the curative act passed the day before. The amendment specifies that all disputes between electric railways and their employes shall be settled by arbitration. The representatives of the labor organizations in the legislature are elated over the passage of the amendment. They say is presages the coming of a time when all disputes will be settled by arbitration. The debate over the question took up most of the afternoon session, and while it was lively it was not as fiery as that of the previous day over the curative act.

Representative Beall secured the adoption of an amendment similar to the one which passed the senate, placing the Beal local option act in the house code, which means that it will stay there, both bodies having agreed on this. The anti-saloon people have issued a statement in which they claim that the insertion of the Beal act in the code is a victory for them. The saloon interests declare it makes no difference.

The senate had an interesting scrap yesterday over the Thompson bill for the repeal of the Jones arc light act. It was defeated as a motion to reconsider, which squelches the bill for all time. Thompson made a hard fight for the measure, and had it called up several times in various ways, but on each occasion its passage was blocked only by a narrow margin.

The senate adjourned till yesterday morning, when another adjournment will be taken to Monday. Little will be done before Tuesday, leaving these matters in about the same shape as they left the committee's hands. Consideration of the code may be completed by the house this week, and if no routine business follows, the legislature may be able to adjourn sine die not later than a week on Monday.

LOOKING AFTER REGISTRATION

Deputy Election Supervisors Making Arrangements to Apply the New Law.

VIEW OF STATE SECRETARY

Is That the Provisions of the Act Should Be Enforced in East Liverpool This Fall—His Advice to the County Board.

The county board of election supervisors is meeting at Lisbon today. The main purpose of the meeting is to make more complete arrangements for the registering of the voters of East Liverpool.

Definite word has been received from the secretary of state, Secretary Walton, of the county board was the recipient yesterday of a communication from Secretary of State Laylin, advising the board that the registering should be proceeded with according to the provisions of the special act passed last winter by the legislature. Mr. Laylin does not believe the law broad enough to cover every phase of the matter, and gives it as his opinion that while there are many points which could have been made more clear, still the supervisors will hardly meet with a great amount of difficulty in complying with the law as it is laid down in its present form.

As to the legality of the act, the state official has no doubt. The county board is authorized by him to proceed with the work at once, and that the state authorities will stand behind it until such time as the law is declared unconstitutional by some competent court. This to the present has not been done.

One drawback which the supervisors have met with is their inability to secure suitable rooms and furniture with which to furnish the registration officials. It is understood by the officers of the board, however, that Chief Thompson has taken up the work, and will provide whatever is necessary.

The secretary of state directs that especial care be taken by the board in the selection of the registers and the clerks. In order to make up for any points which may have been omitted from the law, the supervisors are ordered to exercise discretion and good judgment. They are also advised to act in accordance with the advice of the prosecuting attorney.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN TONIGHT'S MEETING TO BOOM NAVIGATION

All Indications Point to a Rousing Gathering and Great Enthusiasm on the Subject.

Prospects are encouraging for a large turnout at the "On to Cairo" meeting, to be held at the city hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock in pursuance of a call issued by Mayor Davidson.

Since the call was issued the subject has been paramount among all who have the general welfare of the city at heart. It is hoped that the management of every industry of the city will be represented, and each will be called upon to make a declaration on the subject. Logical arguments will undoubtedly be presented, and in one accord for the proposed river improvements.

W. E. Wells, general secretary of the Homer Laughlin China company, has accepted an invitation to propound the vital necessities of the improvements. He, being in a position to know exactly what the shipping industries have for years been in need of, his speech is being looked forward to with kindly anticipations.

Among the others who will likely be called upon to address the meeting are Col. J. N. Taylor, H. P. Knoblock and Wharfmaster Gus Martindill, all of whom are able to deliver weighty arguments.

The poor shipping facilities provided by the one railroad that reaches the city will be aired at length and time-worn stories will be told of how a car placed at a local shipping point has lain unmoved for four and eight days and sometimes as many as ten days.

Another point to be decided at the meeting is where the delegates that

THE CLAIMS ARE STILL PILING UP

Obligations of C. W. Pritchard, of Lisbon, Now Reported Likely to Reach $10,000.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special)—The list of C. W. Pritchard's creditors continues to lengthen, and the amount of his delinquencies now amounts to $10,000. He borrowed money wherever he could with the intention of leaving. But one man has been found who is ahead of Pritchard's game, and he has acknowledged he owes Pritchard 50 cents.

Messages have been received from Pritchard by different parties in which he says he will return.

T. B. Granam, the American Tin Plate office manager, said Cyrus W. Pritchard's accounts with the company are all right, with the exception of short pay envelopes. Pritchard has had the handling of the pay roll for some time.

A list in part of Pritchard's creditors, with the amounts as far as can be ascertained, follow: Judge J. G. Moore, $2,300 to $2,500; W. H. Barr, $12.37; Dr. F. T. Moore, $400; Mrs. Ida Eells, groceries; J. B. Lyder, $5.50; H. B. George, Reed Wilcoxen, Dr. Marquis, Lee Coen, Opera House orchestra, $70; Ed Pritchard; Mayor W. G. Farrell.

The messages Pritchard has been sending here are said to be dated at Pittsburg and Cleveland. Judge Moore and W. H. Barr have gone to Pittsburg.

AN AMBITIOUS PROJECT LAUNCHED

Pittsburg, Lisbon and Western Gets Charter For Railroad From Ashtabula to Steubenville.

The secretary of state has issued incorporation papers to the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western Railroad company, of Lisbon. The company is empowered to construct either a steam or electric road. Starting at Ashtabula the line will extend to the counties of Ashtabula, Trumbull, Mahoning, Columbiana, Jefferson, Holmes, Ashland, Richland, Knox, Morrow and Marion.

The capital stock is fixed at $10,000, and the incorporators are R. W. Tayler, George B. Harvey, Ross Firestone, J. W. Clark, N. E. Baringer, William Hostetter and N. B. Billingsley. The capital given, it is said, is only for organization purposes.

It is understood that steam will be used as the motive power, and that the terminals will be at Ashtabula harbor and Steubenville.

Ex-Judge N. B. Billingsley this afternoon gave out the following statement concerning the above incorporation:

"The names appearing upon the incorporation papers are not the persons who are most interested in this proposition. While the papers were issued in the name of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western railroad the name of an old corporation was used. It means that this road, which extends from New Galilee to Lisbon, is to be extended through the counties named. The

Letter Explains to Democrats Why He Cannot Accept Their Nomination.

CONFERENCE AT ALLIANCE

Was Brief And It Was Decided to Let the East Liverpool Man Remain On the Labor Ticket—Canvass For Signatures.

As was exclusively mentioned in this paper yesterday T. J. Duffy's final decision in the matter of accepting the Democratic nomination has been reached and his answer to the Democratic congressional committee has been prepared.

The document was completed last night and will be ready for publication tomorrow.

The answer is quite lengthy, embracing half a dozen sheets of typewritten copy, and is said to contain a very clear explanation of his position as it relates to the Democratic party.

The meeting of labor advocates at Alliance yesterday was held behind closed doors, and nothing could be learned as to the business taken up by them. Those present were: Warren Williamson, Youngstown; E. J. Creedon, Massillon; A. S. Hughes, representing Thomas J. Duffy, of East Liverpool; Charles Bonsall, of Salem; Fred Johnson and Will Kolb, of Alliance.

The session was not a lengthy one, but it is understood it was definitely decided that Mr. Duffy was to remain with the Labor ticket. Aside from this very little was done.

Charles Bonsall, of Salem, was in Canton today, where he went for the purpose of securing names to the petition to be presented to the secretary of state, asking that the Labor ticket be made a part of the official ballot at this fall's election. He is said to be meeting with a reasonable amount of success.

A HEAD OF PITTSBURG

Local Base Ball Fans Are Making a Strong Claim for East Livepool.

Local base ball fans are rejoicing today. They claim that East Liverpool's team can now be called the champion of the world. Pittsburg has been conceded to be the fastest team in the universe. This team played a tie game of 11 innings with Rochester yesterday.

East Liverpool has demonstrated its superiority over Rochester, and consequently is a notch ahead of Pittsburg.

A Chance to Recover.

Nannie Bucey, the little 14 year old girl who met with the terrible accident at the K. T. & K. pottery yesterday, is reported some better today by her attending physician, Dr. W. N. Bailey. He states that she has rested as well as could be expected and that she has some chance for recovery.

DRAGON MUCH IMPROVED

Slav Lad Likely to Get Well—Alleged Assailant Will Get Off Very Easy.

The condition of little Michael Dragon, victim of an assault in the East End last week, is much improved and hopes for his recovery are being entertained. It is likely that nothing more serious than a charge of assault will be preferred against young Robert Kelly, who, it is alleged, struck Dragon.

Prosecuting Attorney Brookes telephoned to Mayor Davidson last evening in regard to the boy's condition and the mayor replied that Dragon had every chance in the world for recovery. That settled the case as far as the present term of court is concerned.

Reported Wedding.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special.)—It is reported from Hanoverton that Dr. A. C. Rideout, a specialist recently of Salem, and Mrs. Anna George have been married. Mrs. George is the woman who was acquitted at Canton of the murder of George B. Saxton, brother of Mrs. McKinley. Dr. and Mrs. Rideout are visiting at Hanoverton.

DECISION RESERVED

By Judge Boone in a Case Involving A Widow's Dower Rights.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special)—The case of John S. Atterholt, as administrator of the estate of Samuel Springer, against Kate M. Springer et al., was before Judge Boone yesterday. The question involved was whether the widow is entitled to her dower as against a mechanic's lien. The case has become complicated.

Samuel Springer died leaving a house and lot incumberer with claims for material and labor. Recently the court ordered the property sold for debt. The question then came up as to whether the widow should get her dower before or after the mechanic's lien was satisfied.

The widow filed an answer in court in which she admitted that the dower was subject to lien holders, but filed another in which she maintained her dower should take precedence. Immediately after her first answer, however, the property had been sold, the creditors allege, to their disadvantage. Their contention is, that the filing of her first answer estopped her from further proceedings. Judge Boone has reserved his decision.

Jury Commissioners' Meeting.

Lisbon October 2.—(Special.)—The jury commissioners met here today to arrange for the filling of the jury box for the coming year. The jurymen are to be appointed according to the number of votes in the wards and townships.

D. A. Woodward, of this city, and Miss Jessis Robertson, of Zanesville, were married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, in Zanesville. Rev. J. C. Holliday officiated. Only the relatives and friends of the couple were present.

The home was beautifully decorated and at the conclusion of the ceremony a fine dinner was served. The bride was handsomely robed in a blue traveling gown. Numerous costly presents were received. The couple arrived here last evening. They immediately went to housekeeping in a cosy home on Broadway. Mr. Woodward is a popular motorman on the East Liverpool railway. FIERCE BATTLE ON OHIO'S BANKS

BAD BLOOD HAS EXISTED

For Some Time And a Spirited Encounter Was the Result—Knives, Rocks And Clubs Said to Have Been Used Quite Freely.

There was trouble on the banks of the Ohio last night. Knives, rocks and clubs were conspicuous missiles in the hands of a well known gang of desperadoes. That one of more persons were not fatally wounded can be credited to only the interference of citizens who were attracted to the scene by the loud and whooping yells of those who participated in the melee.

It was the result of a long standing feud that has existed between members of local shantyboatmen. Jack Brighouse, better known as Kaiser, his wife, Joseph Woolley and son Ralph were the star performers.

For months the elder Woolley and son have been moored in their shanty-boat on the West Virginia side, directly opposite the Brighouse boat. Upon their every trip to this side a war of words has been indulged in by the couples and last night's performance differed only in the use of arms instead of words.

Comanche Indians, it is said by those who heard them, never raised a greater disturbance than did this quartet. They fought like tigers, witnesses say, and all were almost unrecognizable after the fight was stopped. From

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CHAMPION PLANT STARTED.

After many months of waiting brick is at last being made at the new plant of the Champion Fire Brick company, which is located at Rauch's Run, just east of Wellsville. While the plant has been in operation but partially, it is by no means completed, nor will it be finished for many months. When it is completed the plant will have a capacity of 12 kilns that will be ready to top out in a very few days. This plant is the most up-to-date factory of its kind in his part of the country. In building the works, there was but one thing taken into consideration, and that was economy of space. Every foot of room is occupied, and one department is in close proximity to the other. The clay is taken from the mine, and just at the mouth of the mine is located the grinding machinery. From there the clay is carried by large elevators to another part of the building, from where it is permitted to drop into the pug mill. There it is mixed with water, and as this piece of machinery is most modern, a large continuous block or piece of clay is constantly coming from the pug mill, which is forced over small wood rollers to the cutting machine. This machine, in revolving continually, cuts the large block of clay into the bricks, and just at the end of this machine the bricks are placed on iron cars. There cars are packed in to the dry kilns, and after the two tracks in each dry kiln is filled, and a new car is pushed into the kiln at one end, a car of dry bricks is forced out at the other end of the kiln. From this kiln in the plant proper it is but a short distance to the large kilns where the bricks are fired, and the cars of brick are pushed from the dry kilns right to the door of the large kilns outside the plant. In this manner fast work can be accomplished. The new plant, when in full operation, will have a capacity of about 50,000 brick a day, and nothing but brick will be made. It was given out some time ago that sewer pipe would be made at this plant, but such is not the case.

WALKER PLANT TO START.

The American Sewer Pipe company is spending several thousand dollars in improving the Walker plant, which has but one press, will soon be placed in operation. The engine which was formerly used at the East End sewer pipe plant has been installed at Walker, and is about in readiness to operate. There is a small amount of small pipe in the green state at this plant, but it will not be fired until other pipe has been made. In short, there is not enough pipe in the plant now to fill half a kiln. Changes have been made all through the plant. Improvements have been added to the machinery throughout the plant and new platforms have been built alongside the railroad tracks. All this work requires time, and although a goodly number of men are being employed repairing the plant, their work is of a very tedious nature. The one press at these works is capable of making either 2 inch or 24 inch pipe, just as required. The stock yards are also being enlarged, and when the plant is started it will be run steadily. General Manager Hartford and an assistant are engaged in taking stock, and their work will be completed in a day or so. The company will not operate the upper works, formerly used for the making of brick, and this building is fast decaying, and will soon be utterly unfit for use.

FOR CHRISTMAS TIMES.

A number of the general ware potteries of this city are beginning to put new shapes on the market for the Christmas and spring trade. Each year the standard of earthen ware production in this country is assuming a higher degree of excellence. To any one who has been in close touch with the progress of the pottery industry in America, during the past ten years, the improvement in dinner and toilet designs has been very striking. While there is a wide inclination prevalent to turn out large quantities of ware, the quality of the articles produced has not been neglected. The tone of pottery manufacture continues to improve in this country and there are ceramic critics who have stated that general ware productions are of a very high order and in many instances bear favorable comparison with any in the world.

TO START THIS WEEK.

The pottery department of this paper is in receipt of a letter from an official of the Crown Potteries company at Evansville, Ind., in which the fact is made known that ground is to be broken this week for the new pottery to be erected by that company, and which will be known as the National Pottery company. It is the intention of the company to have the plant in operation, if it is possible, not later than the first of the year. With the National China company, Jefferson R. Warner, president in this city, and the National Pottery company, Aaron M. Weil, president, of Evansville, Ind., it seems that the name National is being overworked. The same can be said about the name "Dresden." A firm in this city and the new company at Salineville will use the same name.

TINKERING WITH TARIFF.

The fact that a congressional election is almost at hand is arousing much interest among pottery manufacturers and workers. A manufacturer who is most prominent in politics in this state said a few days ago that the coming congress would no doubt attempt to tinker with the tariff, and no matter what kind of a candidate is elected, unless he is a Republican, he will be compelled to stand up for the national platform of the Democratic party. A candidate on the Democratic ticket, no matter whether he represens an industrial district or not, will be in duty bound to support the planks of the Democratic platform. East Liverpool is now in its most prosperous era, and tinkering with the tariff is not desired by its people.

TOP KILN DRAWN.

The first ware to be taken from the new top kilns at the D. E. McNicol pottery has been drawn and shows excellent results. The company has several top kilns in working order at the present time. By using the tops of the kilns, a full glost kiln is gained every week. While the company has been firing yellow biscuit ware in these kilns in the past, a new plan has been tried, and white biscuit ware is to be fired. The first top kiln of ware to be fired in this manner will be placed within the next few days, and the innovation will without doubt prove a profitable one to the firm. It is said there in not another pottery in the city where white biscuit ware is given its first firing in the top kiln.

NO FRICTION NOW.

For the past few days there has been a slight friction between certain employes of the kiln departments of Laughlin No. 2 and 3, over the formation of the new relief association, but at a meeting which was held on Tuesday, everything was settled to the satisfaction of all concerned. It was rumored the kilnmen at No. 3 did not care to join the association which was formed by the lower floor employes of No. 2, but as the matter has been satisfactorily arranged, everybody appears to be satisfied. The by-laws for the new association are now being printed, and will be ready for distribution in a few days.

A STRANGER IN TOWN.

Visiting at the home of his sons, Walter and William Davidson, on first visit of Mr. Davidson to this city and although he has been here but a few days, he is most favorably impressed with the customs and the potteries of this pottery center. Mr. Davidson's sons are employed at stickers up at the Thompson pottery, having been employed before they came here in the Campbell pottery at Hamilton. The elder Davidson had never seen a pottery in which gas was used for firing kilns until he came to this city and the sight was most interesting. Nothing but yellow ware in made in the Hamilton pottery, and white ware is not made nearer that city than at Quebec. Mr. Davidson will remain in this city several weeks calling upon his numerous friends.

WORKING ON FOUNDATION.

Owing to the wet weather of the past few days not much progress has been made upon the foundation for the new addition that is to be erected by the West End Pottery company. One part of the foundation has been completed, but still there is much more work to be done by the stone masons. It will be several days, it is said before carpenters of other workmen will be able to commence work at this addition, owing to the fact that the stone masons have been somewhat delayed.

CHETWYND STRIKE SETTLED.

After several conferences with the officials of the company, which were held yesterday afternoon and last evening, the fillers-in employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery returned to work this morning. The conference yesterday resulted in a compromise, and the fillers-in at the Globe also returned to work today. Disputes of the same character took place at both plants.

RESIGNED HIS POSITION.

James F. Cochrane, who for some time has been employed in the warehouse at the Brunt pottery, has resigned his position. He has received an offer to become associated with the firm of T. G. Evans & Co., of Pittsburg, as chief warehouseman, and left this morning for that city, to close the deal. Cochrane is one of the best known warehousemen in the city.

HE HAS GONE SOUTH.

Daniel E. McNicol, of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, left today for an extensive business trip through the south. He will be gone several weeks. During the trip he will visit his extensive clay mines in North Carolina, and will also spend a week or more at Lexington, Ky., visiting former friends.

ILL WITH FEVER.

John Roberts, manager of the decorating department of the Brunt pottery, is very ill at his home on Thompson Hill, suffering with typhoid fever. He has been ill for several days, and will not be able to resume his work for several days.

CHANGED HIS POSITION.

Ralph Turner, who has been employed as a glost kilnman at the McNicol pottery for many months, has been transferred to the biscuit bench at the same shop. He commenced work in his new position this week.

FOUND JOBS HERE

Did Not Have to Hunt for It, Contractor McLaughlin Engaging Them at Once.

Eleven strangers arrived in this city this morning, and within an hour after they alighted from an eastern train they were given employment by Contractor Thomas McLaughlin, at the rate of $1.75 a day.

These men came direct to this city from the Pennsylvania coal fields where the great coal strike is now in progress, but just how long they will remain here cannot be told. The men do not know themselves. If the great strike is settled within a fortnight it is likely that the miners will return to eastern Pennsylvania to their families.

It will be remembered that this paper told of about 50 striking miners passing through this city last Saturday for Irondale, where they had been employed by General Manager Burnside, of the Norris Coal company. After the 11 men came here this morning they commenced to look for work, and they ran right into it. They took a car for the East End, but got no farther than the power house. There they alighted and the first person they met was Contractor McLaughlin.

The men asked for work, and with open arms, McLaughlin received them. The men were told to get off their best clothes and go to work at once and at the rate of $1.75 a day. Each man was well dressed and under their arms were bundles of working clothes. Some of the younger members of the party had overcoats with them, and there was not one of the party who was not good looking. In fact, they did not have the appearance of being coal miners. But that does not matter.

These men have been given employment, just what they asked for, and there is ample room for others to be employed on the same contract. Additional teams are to be put to work at once on this contract of grading for the Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad company, and if the coal strike lasts much longer it is likely other miners will be sent for by their friends who are now here.

SUMMONS DISREGARDED

East End Young Man Said to Have Disobeyed Behest to Meet Grand Jury.

People of the East End who claim to be in a position to know stated this morning that several young men of the East End who had been summoned to appear before the grand jury at Lisbon today would not be there. Just why these youths dislike to take the trip to the county seat is not stated, but there is one thing sure, the course they are taking may be a most serious one. A few days ago Deputy Sheriff Davidson left a summons at the home of a young man in the East End, but the "lady of the house" thought that it was meant for an older member of the family, and accordingly, Mr. Davidson served it upon the older person by the same name. This reached the ears of Prosecuting Attorney Brookes, and last evening word was sent to the East End authorities to see to it that the young man for whom the summons was intended, appeared at Lisbon this morning.

Relatives of the young man stated today that he would not be at Lisbon, and that he was working as usual. Owing to this fact something interesting may develop in the next few days. Another young of this part of the city left for another state after he received a summons; And as this is not according to law, it is hard to tell what may happen. Matters are beginning to look interesting.

New Stalls Beirg Erected And Arrangements Made for Great Number of Horses.

Carpenters have commenced work at Columbian park erecting a hundred or more stalls which will be used during the Tri-State fair, which is to be held at the park within the next few days. The contract for this work was let to Alex Chafin, but he was delayed in starting the work, owing to the inability to secure a sufficient number of workmen. There will be at least 100 horses at the fair, and it is expected that many more stalls than that will be built. A large number of men are at work on the work, and it is thought they will finish early next week.

The officers of the association have secured a number of additional attractions, including several horse that race without either riders or drivers. One of these horses has a mark of 2·05¼.

SURGICAL WORK IN CHINA

Dr. Swan Writes to His Father of Many Operations Performed On Natives.

Rev. J. N. Swan, of the East End, received a letter this morning from his son, who is a physician at Canton, China. The letter stated that a few days ago previous to the writing Dr. Swan had performed many operations upon the natives for the removal of tumors.

Just the day before nine natives were operated upon, and from one of the natives, the letter states that a tumor weighing 40 pounds was removed from the right shoulder of a Chinaman. The tumor was placed in a sack, through which a stick was placed, and carried away on the shoulder of a native. Dr. Swan also stated that in one day he had performed nine operations for the removal of tumors.

Growing Postal Business.

Postmaster Will Baird, of the East End postoffice, completed his report for the business handled during the month of September, this morning. Stamps and other postal matter to the value of $164 was sold, while the money order business amounted to $1,650. This business is largely in excess of that handled during the month of July.

To Appear Against Allison.

The Proper Treatment For a Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. The river improvement meeting tonight should be large and enthusiastic. Considering the interest East Liverpool has in seeing the Ohio made navigable from Pittsburg to its mouth, the cry, "On to Cairo," should be taken up and made to echo until the sound reaches the halls of congress. In these days few things that are worth having are obtained without asking for them. The demand for a navigable river is going to be long and loud, and East Liverpool, unless blind to her own interests, should be in the van of the petitioners for it. We should send some of our best citizens to the Parkersburg meeting. It will be an easy matter for them to fortify themselves with arguments that will carry weight, both at the Parkersburg meeting and with the national legislators. The president has placed himself on record as favoring river imprivement, and all friends of the project have excellent reason to be encouraged. A long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and the task will be accomplished much earlier than if the legislators are left to procrastinate.

The action of President Roosevelt, in inviting the anthracite coal operators and the national president of the miners' union to meet him to discuss possible ways and means of ending the great strike, is unprecedented, but that fact does not prove that it is unwise. The trammels of conventionality are something that the president refuses to be bound by. If he sees a chance to do good, he embraces it, regardless of what the world may think or how the action may affect his political fortunes. Thousands of well-meaning people have been urging him to use his good offices to end the strike, and he plainly shows to them that he is willing to do what he can. There can be no politics in the movement, and no harm to any interest can result in the proposed conference. A general acceptance of the president's invitation and a manifestation of the spirit which prompted it may result in benefit to all concerned. It remains to be seen whether the coal operators are utterly careless and indifferent as to the public welfare.

The Democrats in the legislature, acting as a party, can do nothing either for or against code legislation. But they can pursue the dog-in-the-manger policy and delay the progress of work which all Ohio is eager to see accomplished. Partisan politics should have no place in providing laws for the government of Ohio cities, but the Democrat who would rather work for the good of the state than for party buncombe is conspicuous by his absence from the general assembly.

In attempting to settle the coal strike during his period of convalescence President Roosevelt has set himself a task which might easily daunt a well but less courageous man.

Michigan is now represented in the United States senate by two Ohio men. Other states which want up-to-date representatives know where to look for the men.

Laura Biggar needn't be discouraged. Think how she will draw as the lady who wasn't satisfied with $700,000 if she goes on the stage again.

More South American revolutions are due. The historian who attempts to keep track of them all will certainly have his hands full.

new corporation will absorb the old company, and it is expected that a meeting with this end in view will be held within the next two weeks. For the past four months a large force of surveyors have been at work on the extension of this road, and all the preliminary work is about completed. There are some few details yet to be looked after, and it will take but a short time to do this. The preliminary work has progressed most favorably, and those back of the movement are well satisfied."

When asked if this extension would touch East Liverpool, it was said that an extension to this city would depend greatly upon how favorably rights of way could be secured for it. "I can not say very much about the future intentions of the company just at this time, but that the extension to the road will be built there is no doubt," said the judge.

AT THE THEATER

For 24 years the Bennett-Moulton company has occupied a place in the very forefront of American amusement enterprises. Certain it is that no repertoire company playing Bradford has even presented such a notable list of plays as "Darkest Russia," "The Captain's Mate," "A Daughter of the South," "Outcasts of Society," "The Pay Train" and "Capital Against Labor." The opening bill is the great comedy-drama, "Darkest Russia," employing the full strength of the company. Reserved seat sale opens Saturday morning.

If a wholesome, honest, cleanly play that alternates pathos and laughter with gatling gun rapidity is what theatergoers want, they will go to see Denman Thompson and George W. Ryer's greatest of all dramas, "Our New Minister," when it comes again to the Grand Friday night. "Our New Minister" was praised in these columns last season when it made its initial appearance here; no other rural play, not even "The Old Homestead" appeals more thoroughly to the masses than this idyl of New England life.

"East Lynne" will be seen at the New Grand opera house on Saturday afternoon and evening of this week. Miss Warren, the star of the piece, has never had an adverse criticism, and the company carries its own scenery. The production is promised to be the best seen here this season.

A good crowd witnessed "Indiana Folks" presented at the Grand last evening. The play was well received and the specialties were especiall pleasing.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

The case of Andy Galm vs. Kate Mader was held yesterday in 'Squire Johnston's court in Chester. Judgment was given in favor of Galm, the defendant not appearing. F. E. Grosshans, attorney for Mrs. Mader, made a motion for a new trial. 'Squire Johnston withheld his decision in this question.

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure."

It is undoubtedly true that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Peede, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

are to be appointed will be instructed to recommend the placing of the dam. The closer to the city that the dam is built the greater the benefits to local interests. It will not matter materially, so far as the navigation is concerned, but when considering the fact that it will require the labor of several hundred men and that for over two years it is a very important point to be considered. If erected in close proximity to the city, it will mean the disbursement of thousands of dollars among East Liverpool citizens. Why should the city not have it? Influential men selected as delegates to the convention can work wonders in this direction.

The names of the delegates have been practically decided upon, but not knowing that they will accept the honor, it is prudent to withhold them. There will be at least three appointed and perhaps five.

Mayor Davidson will call the meeting to order and after stating its object will ask for the nomination of a chairman. Besides the selection of delegates to the convention various committees will be appointed to work in conjunction with the delegates.

"THE GREAT REPUBLIC," FOUR VOLUMES, HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES, PREMIUM TO THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

WELLSVILLE

A THING OF THE PAST

Foot Ball Team of Ex-High School Boys Reported Disbanded.

The Ex-High School foot ball team, which was organized only a few evenings ago, and which was to be the representative team of Wellsville, is now a thing of the past.

The team averaged about 150 pounds and was composed of the following strong players: Holland, McClure, Daughaday, Anderson, Foltz, Cummins, McLain, Blue, Cope, Heaken, McConnell and Knox. The evening that they organized, holding their meeting in the C. & P. reading rooms, they elected Frank McLain manager and W. E. Knox captain.

The aggregation included some of the very best amateur players in the county, and had they played with any outside team would have undoubtedly held their own.

The team broke up for the simple reason that the men could not get together for practice. It seems that most of the men are employed during the day, while two or three of them are employed at night. For this reason alone they were unable to get together and thought it therefore best to disband, as they were unable to accept any challenges which might come in.

Mr. McLain stated a few evenings ago that he had arranged with several small colleges near here for games. He expected to make arrangements for a game within a few days with the Juniata club of Beaver Falls, but will now have to drop all of these engagements.

The only representative team which this city now supports is the Bruno Athletic club team, which is under the management of Edward Bunting. This team is very light, only averaging about 130 pounds.

It has already challenged outside teams and will arrange for a game the first part of next week.

THE POLES MUST GO

Council Committee Taking Action to Rid Streets of Unnecessary Obstructions.

At the regular meeting of council next Monday evening the matter of ridding the city thoroughfares of unnecessary electric light, telegraph and telephone poles will probably be disposed of. The pole committee of council held a meeting recently and decided that the poles, which are blocking the city streets and which are not in the least necessary, must be removed. The matter was brought before council some time ago and was left in the hands of the pole committee. Now that it has taken action council will likely dispose of it.

W. G. Stewart, who resides on Broadway, at one time handed in a complaint to council calling attention to the fact that there were too many poles in the front, and on the sides of his property. He asked that something be done in the matter. While there are five poles surrounding his property, two would very readily answer the purpose. Mr. Stewart's complaint is only one of the many that have been received by council. The unnecessary poles are considered a nuisance.

REPLACING PAVING

Street Railway Company Is Having the Work Done Which Council Ordered.

In accordance with an agreement made by Manager Healy, of the East Liverpool street railway, and council at the last meeting, the work of replacing the street paving along the line of route of the street railroad is now being done by Contractor Rinehart's men.

Although the paver is replacing new brick where the old ones were taken up, the new pavement is said not to be as secure and sound as the old. Unless it is rolled after the brick are laid and the sand is thrown over it, council will probably take action compelling that work to be done. The pavers have now completed most of the paving except a long stretch in the West End.

FREE DELIVERY

Postoffice Inspector Looking Over Wellsville With View to Installing It.

E. M. Norris, a postoffice inspector, today inspected the local postoffice with a view toward establishing a free delivery in the city and also to settle upon the rent which the postoffice department will hereafter pay.

Regarding the free delivery, Postmaster Snowden has recently reported that the postoffice receipts this year at this time are $500 more than they were last year at the same time. Last year the receipts fell short only $1,500 to the required amount of $10,000, which would give the city free delivery. From the present outlook this year the business will nearly reach the required amount, and what little is short may be made up through merchants purchasing stamps.

Mr. Norris stated this morning that if the city had free delivery it would have to remove the postoffice into a much larger room.

ON TO CAIRO MEETING

Wellsville Will Have One as Soon as City Hall Repairs Are Finished.

As soon as the repairs upon the hall in the third floor of the city building, have been completed, an "On to Cairo" public meeting will be arranged for. Mayor Fogo has had this movement in hand for some time and means to use all of his power and influence in pushing the matter along.

The meeting to be held will be open to every one, and a packed hall is assured for that occasion. Out of town speakers will be secured. The repair work will be completed about the 15th of this month.

Fined Him $13.60.

Mayor Fogo last evening fined Edward Henshaw $13.60. Henshaw was arrested yesterday by Officer John Henthorn on a charge of resisting an officer. It seems that the Henshaws at their home in the extreme West End were raising quite a disturbance. The officer found that Pres Henshaw was the cause of the disturbance, and upon trying to take him was resisted by the balance of the family and more forcibly by Ed Henshaw.

Notes of the Unions.

The Clerks' union held its regular meeting last evening in Potters' hall, on Ninth street. About one-half of the members were present. No business of especial interest was transacted. No action was taken in the matter of holding a banquet. The regular weekly meeting of the Carpenters' union was held last evening, but only routine business was transacted.

ATTACKED BY BEES

R. E. Allison Robbed Them of Their Honey And They Retaliated.

R. E. Allison is suffering from a badly swollen hand, the result of an attack upon him by an angry swarm of bees. Early in the season Mr. Allison located a bee tree in the woods near his home. He bided his time until he thought the season far enough advanced for a good crop of honey and then sallied forth and felled the tree.

From an opening in the side of the trunk, he was carefully extracting the honey when the bees, aroused from their peaceful slumbers, rushed out and painfully stung him.

Mr. Allison finally killed most of the bees and made off with his spoil, 40 pounds of honey.

CHALLENGE ISSUED

ROCHESTER INVITED TO MEET WALSH'S TEAM AGAIN.

Each Club Must Put Up $500, the Money to Go to the Victors.

Angered because the Rochester base ball team refused to play out the series scheduled to decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and northeastern Ohio and fully confident that his team can best the Pennsylvania boys under any circumstances, Manager Charles Walsh, through a Pittsburg paper this morning challenged the team of the white feathers for another series of three games.

The challenge, if accepted by the management of the Rochester team, will mean that each team must put up $500, to go to the one winning the majority of games. It also includes the gate receipts of the entire number of games. To make the challenge bona fide Manager Walsh enclosed a check for $50. He thus showed that he means business and has undying confidence in his aggregation.

Local fans will await an answer from Rochester with anxiety. It is almost an assured fact, however, that the challenge will not be accepted, as Rochester has already seen that when against East Liverpool it is against the real thing. Its players will likely do as they have done heretofore—do an unlimited amount of blowing, but fail to come up with the cash.

The following is the challenge verbatim as published in the Pittsburg Post this morning:

"We, the East Liverpool base ball club, hereby challenge the Rochester, Pa., base ball club to play us a series of three games for $500 a side and the entire gate receipts of the three games, the first game to be played in East Liverpool, the second in Rochester and if a third game is necessary said third game to be played on neutral grounds. Each team to use the same players that played in the games on September 26 and 27, 1902, provided, however, that either team may substitute any player who has taken part in not less than five games with that team during the season of 1902. The sporting editor of the Pittsburg Post to act as stakeholder and to select the umpire for the games.

"CHARLES M. WALSH, "Manager."

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York

IN WESTERN WILDS

LEETONIA MAN GOT LOST AND WANDERED FOR DAYS.

Startling Adventures of John Flooding While Hunting in Colorado.

Some time ago Fred Wiedmeyer, who had been a druggist in Leetonia, closed out his business interests there and started with a party on a hunting trip through the wilds of Colorado. This was about two months ago, and after he had been in the west for a month he wrote to another Leetonia man, John A. Flooding, who is a butcher in that town, telling him of the pleasures of the trip and inviting him to come on and join the party. This Flooding decided to do.

The party was composed of Dr. H. M. Schuffel, of Canton; Charles Sell and Thomas Wolf, of Osnaburg, and Fred Wiedmeyer and John Flooding, the two Leetonia men. The party went to the home of Zach Doll at New Castle, Col., Doll being an old friend and a former Canton man.

Last week letters were received in Canton, written by Charles Sell, a member of the party, which caused the greatest alarm among the friends of Flooding. In brief, it stated that while the party was out on a camping expedition in the mountains, some 20 miles from New Castle, Flooding had mysteriously been lost, and that after a search of several days the party had been unable to locate him. The letter expressed fears that he had fallen prey to grizzly bears or other wild beasts.

A copy of the New Castle (Col.) Nonpareil of last Wednesday states that Flooding returned to camp on the previous Monday. He had been driven a distance of 32 miles by a Miller Creek ranchman. Had Mr. Flooding not been a very plucky and sensible young man, the story would have had a different ending. It is no joke for anyone to be wandering around in a heavy storm in a strange country without food for 60 hours, as many, getting bewildered and confused, would have met a more serious mishap, but Flooding kept his wits about him and finally pulled out at a ranch on Miller Creek, where he got food and conveyance back to friends.

THE FIRST CONCESSION

For a Street Railway in the Cuban Republic Granted to Youngstown Men.

Youngstown, October 2.—The first public service concession granted by the republic of Cuba and the city of Havana was made to the syndicate of capitalists headed by Messrs. W. H. Park and H. G. Hamilton, of this city.

A cablegram to them from J. D. Milligan, now at Havana, announces that the long delayed electric railway concession had been granted in full and nothing now remains but to begin the work of construction.

Some time ago the syndicate, including Youngstown, New York and Cleveland capitalists, secured a right from the Cuban government to build an electric line in the other portions of the city, the name of the company being the Havana & Jaminitas Railway company. It was desired to extend the line later into the business part of the city and the later concession has now been approved by the government railway commission, which consists of the cabinet of President Palma. The city council of Havana had already granted the right

This extension means that the lines will pass on two sides of the presidential palace, along the steamship wharves, and in fact will penetrate the best business portion of the city. It will also extend 10 or 12 miles into the country. It was a great triumph for Youngstown diplomacy and for American pluck and brains.

Mr. Hamilton said: "We shall begin to build the line at once, just as soon as we can get the material there. We shall start construction in the outskirts of the city first. Mr. Milligan will sail for home Saturday."

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, October 2.—Rev. W. H. McMaster, of Blairsville, lectured in the United Presbyterian church Tuesday on moral reform.

Mrs. J. W. Reilly, of Wellsville, a representative of a fire insurance company of that city, was here looking after business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson, of this town, drove over to the village of Scroggsfield last Monday and were the guests of his wife's sister, Mrs. Andrew George.

At a recent congregational meeting of the United Presbyterian church it was voted to allow the pastor, Rev. F. E. Dean, to supply the congregation of Grant's Hill every third Sunday afternoon with preaching at 2 o'clock until January 1.

The Dorrance brothers will move their saw mill this week from its present location on the farm of R. B. Sharp to the farm of Alexander Hart.

John Dennis, an ex-soldier of the Twenty-sixth Ohio battery, had an increase of pension, up to $24 per month.

Mrs. Clay, of Massillon, after a week's visit with friends in Salineville, has returned home.

McCartney, the tinner, moved his store and household goods to the Hogue building Tuesday.

The common pleas court sent invitations to about 40 Salineville citizens to appear Wednesday.

An electrical storm passed over our town Tuesday night about 8 o'clock with a heavy rainfall.

FIFTY YEARS A PRINTER

Jesse Harris, Formerly of This City, Has Set Type Since 1852.

Salem, October 2.—It was 50 years ago on September 28, 1852, that Jesse Harris, who resides at 622 McKinley avenue, and is now an employe of the T. J. Walton Printing company on Vine street entered the printing business. He learned the case in this city at the office of the Anti-Slavery Bugle, which was conducted by John Hudson. Mr Harris was at that time 17 years of age, and is now probably the oldest printer in working harness in the state. He is still an expert.

In May, 1861, he started the first paper that was published in East Liverpool. It was a weekly and was called the East Liverpool Mercury. Mr. Harris was editor of the publication and continued in that capacity for two years. Mr. Harris has been an employe of Mr. Walton for many years. He has lost but few days on account of sickness since he learned the trade half a century ago.

"My heart palpitated, beats were irregular and sometimes it would pound and throb against my chest and seem to shake the whole bed. The first bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure started the cure that followed in a few months." HENRY SOMERS, Seneca Falls, N. Y.

Mrs. Mount, of 165 Fourth street, says: "If weakness across the loins and sharp pains in the back are any indication of kidney complaint, then I had it. I knew what caused the trouble, but how to check it was a mystery until my husband procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy for himself. The result in his case was so satisfactory that I used two or three boxes. They cured me. At least up to the present date there has been no symptons of a recurrence."

TRADES COUNCIL TO TAKE NO ACTION

That Body Decides to Take No Steps to Keep Farmers From Selling Meat.

INTERESTS OF WORKERS

Are Not Likely to Be Promoted By Such Action—A Variety of Other Matters Discussed And Disposed of Last Night.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of Trades Council last night but the interest was none the less manifest.

One of the most important actions taken was the passage of a resolution requesting that the council take no action with reference to the licensing of farmers and hucksters who peddle meat in this city. The resolutions follows:

"Resolved, That the members of the City Council of the city of East Liverpool be asked to refrain from passing any resolution introduced by the butchers asking for the prevention of the sale of meats by the farmers of this vicinity. It is considered that the provisions of the ordinance asked for will be contrary to the national constitution, and that if the council looks to the interests of the laboring people they will not take action in regard to the request."

The secretary of the council was instructed to send a communication to the city council notifying them of the stand taken by Trades Council.

The plumbers of Norfolk asked for assistance and they were voted $5.

The garment workers of Marietta reported that the Union Overall company, of that city, was unfair, and the delegates to the council were instructed to look out for the same.

The Shingle Weavers' union, of Tacoma, Wash., reported on two shingle firms that were non-union. A committee was appointed to see that the shingles were not used in this city.

The laundry workers of Saginaw, Mich., have been having considerable trouble and they explained in a communication that they were short of funds on account of a strike among the miners of the district. A donation of $3 was ordered.

The Marine Trades Council, of New York and vicinity, is active in the behalf of Capt. J. A. Smith, to take the place of Admiral Melville, who is about to resign. Petitions have already been sent to the president in regard to the appointment and the secretary of the Trades Council was instructed to petition the senator and congressman of this district to advocate the appointment of Captain Smith.

The Central Labor union, Milwaukee, presented a communication asking for the formation of a union, which from appearance would be a rival of the American Federation of Labor. The communication was laid over.

A statement was received to the effect that C. Heinman, a local bartender, who had been accused from Pittsburg of violating his obligation in the electrical workers' union, had appeared before the union where he had committed his offense and paid the necessary fine and had been reinstated. The ban that had been placed on him in this city was lifted.

Six months per capita tax was ordered paid by the secretary to the American Federation of Labor.

Treasurer Anderson made the following report from the beginning of his term: Receipts, $883.23; disbursements, $373.70; balance, $509.53.

A communication was received in regard to the appointment of a delegate to the national meeting of the American Federation of Labor, but the proposition was laid over until the next meeting of the council.

CHILDREN'S RECORD

Of Books Will Show Class of Literature Popular With Them.

Miss Baker, librarian of the Carnegie Public Library, who is ever engaged in interesting the children as well as the other readers, has designed a reading record for the children, which is not only novel but very useful.

These little record booklets will be distributed to the children in the public schools, in order that each child may have one. There is a place for the child's name, age and address, also for each month of the year. Beneath each month in five spaces where may be written the names of the books read during the month.

If the book read appeals to the child as being very interesting the reader is requested to mark on the book record the letter "v," and if merely interesting the letter "i," but if they do not care for the book at all the letter "n," is marked after the name of the book.

By this means the librarian will be enabled to classify more correctly the books which are especially interesting to the children.

Salem, October 2.—At the opening of the W. C. T. U. state convention Linsey Teegarden, of this city, welcomed the visitors and an interesting program was carried out.

Mrs. H. B. Wisner, state secretary, gave a report upon the work of the L. T. L. for the past year. The total membership in the state is 50,000, with 1,516 companies scattered over the state. Hamilton county was reported as the banner county, having secured 89 new members within the year. In 1901, 46 new companies were organized in Ohio, and the honor roll, consisting of members who have signed the triple pledge, agreeing not to drink, swear or smoke, has reached 3,336.

Free to High School Pupils.

Prof. R. E. Rayman today made the announcement that all the High School students who wished to attend the lectures included in the University work would be given tickets for the lecture free of charge. This is considered a rare treat, by reason of the fine lectures which will be delivered by Prof. Sparks, and the students of the High School will probably show their appreciation of this golden opportunity by a full attendance at every lecture.

AN OPEN SECRET.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism and that is to remove the cause of the disease. Rheumatism is a result of an excess of uric acid in the blood. Uric acid is formed by diseased kidneys. BLOOD WINE compels the kidneys to perform their work, thus stopping the flow of uric acid and absolutely curing rheumatism. Mrs. M. J. McCrillis, 434 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., says: "I suffered intensely from rheumatism in my hip. After taking five bottles of BLOOD WINE my general health greatly improved, and I am now well."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS GET THE BEAUTIFUL PRIZE.

Over 20,000 Ahead of the Firemen in the Contest Just Ended.

Colors flying in a grand stand finish the Knights of Columbus reached the wire last evening far ahead of any competitor and as a result won the Thompson prize piano which has been so ardently worked for since early July by about twenty local societies and organizations.

At the conclusion of the counting of the votes by Mayor Davidson, Chief Thompson, W. B. Lewis, Jacob Weisend, James Bauman, George and Thomas Betteridge, the committee of judges appointed at the beginning of the contest, it was found that the Knights of Columbus were easy winners, they having secured 104,762 votes, that number exceeding the next highest, those collected by the members of the city's fire department, by 21,020 votes.

The firemen made a brave fight for the prize, and for weeks it looked as if they were sure of winning but when the last heat was finished the Knights demonstrated that they had been working just a little harded than their close seconds.

The prize, which is beautiful and of the finest material, was turned over to the winners today. They are to be congratulated on their success.

IT DRIVES THEM.

It is not known at what time the store was broken into, but it was probably about three o'clock this morning. Mr. McCutcheon's loss will not amount to over $5.

Mr. Bloom's store was probably the first to be entered, and it was from there that the most property was taken. About 12 o'clock, Mrs. C. F. Paulley, who keeps a cafe next to Bloom's, heard several men prowling around the house, but gave the matter no thought, as people often come there late at night to get a lunch. Her doors and windows were tried, but no entrance was effected. Mrs. Paulley heard the men tramping back and forth, and from the sounds made, judges that there were probably half a dozen of them. She heard the sounds coming from Bloom's store, but as Mr. Bloom does not retire early as a rule she was not excited over the fact.

Mr. Bloom's store presented a sorry appearance this morning. Show cases were torn up. Goods scattered and windows open. The gang pried open the side window of the store with a chisel found upon the premises. The desk was first broken open, and the contents scattered about over the floor. The key to the front door was taken from the desk and thrown out of the window. It was found this morning quite a distance from the house. The robbers were evidently much disappointed at not finding money in the desk.

The gang got about $50 worth of money from Bloom's store, besides a large amount of clothing, suits, mackintosches, shoes, etc. Mr. Bloom cannot state exactly how much was taken, but $200 will probably not cover the total loss.

From Bloom's store, the theives went to the store of the Chester Grocery company. The back window was again the place through which they climbed. N. B. Rowley, the proprietor of the store, had taken all the money from the drawer with the exception of a plugged nickel, and a cent. The nickel was taken from the drawer but was laid upon the counter. The men helped themselves to a handful of tobies, but took nothing else. They opened the ice chest, but again they met with a frost. (joax) Money was very plainly the object of their visit, and not finding this they made their escape.

The gang was very probably for big game. Sheriff Allison, of New Cumberland, had been collecting taxes all day, and had considerable money about his person. It is thought, by most people, that Mr. Allison was the man for whom the gang was searching. Mr. Allison sometimes leaves the money in the safe at the postoffice, and the thieves probably thought to crack the safe, and make off with a rich haul.

a point half way up the bank to the river and then to the boat they tumbled.

Brighouse, it would seem, would have the worst of such an engagement, owing to having but one strong arm and leg, but such was not the case. He not only handled them to perfection, but had an uncontrollable advantage, helped by his wife. Howling fiercely, it is said, that she used her hands and teeth with admirable results. The Woolleys, it is alleged, bear marks of her finger nails on their faces and their hair of their heads was given vigorous jerks.

When on the verge of topping into the river the quartet was interrupted. The fighters then separated and at long distances swore what the result would have been had then been allowed to fight it out. The Woolleys are of fighting stock, but they have close seconds in the Kaisers, and it is very likely that upon their next meeting blood will be spilled.

An eye witness to the fight stated this morning that he intended making information against the entire bunch, but the mayor has not yet been approached.

19TH YEAR. NO. 233. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1902. TWO CENTS.

ATTEND THE "ON TO CAIRO" MEETING AT CITY HALL TONIGHT.

THREE STORES RAIDED BY BOLD BURGLARS OVER IN CHESTER

A Gang Visited Clothing Store, Drug Store and Grocery—S. Bloom Was the Greatest Loser.

All Chester is excited over a daring robbery, which took place there last night. Theree stores suffered from the depredations of the gang. C. T. McCutchison's drug store, the Chester Grocery company's store and S. Bloom's furnishing store were broken into.

The gang is very probably the same which has been operating in East Liverpool. The burglars made an attempt to force an entrance into the store of Allison & Hobbs but were frightened away by the occupants of the store. Mr. Allison heard a noise at the stable door, but he paid no attention to it, thinking it was made by the horse. It was afterwards found that the thieves had pried the staple from the door.

From the stable the gang probably expected to gain an entrance to the store room, and thence into the post-office, where the safe is kept.

At McCutcheon's store, the back door was first tried, and an attempt made to climb in over the transom. Failing in this the side window was pried up and from there the entrance was made.

The gang carried the cash register out through the back door and over into a nearby field, where it was unscrewed, and the contents, amounting to $1.75 was taken. Mr. McCutcheon's trunk was rifled and a small amount of money was taken from it.

Mr. McCutcheon had quite a sum of money in his room up stairs, but the theives made no attempt to go up the stairs. Some of the stolen money was found on the ground near the register.

House Adopted Amended Compulsory Arbitration Act After Much Debate.

SENATORS HAVE A SCRAP

And the Bill for the Repeal of the Jones Arc Light Bill Is Put to Sleep—Legislative Session Nearing the Close.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, October 2.—Labor scored a distinct victory in the house yesterday afternoon when that body by a substantial majority adopted the Guerin compulsory arbitration amendment after it had been amended by Willis, of Hardin, so as to apply to the curative act passed the day before. The amendment specifies that all disputes between electric railways and their employes shall be settled by arbitration. The representatives of the labor organizations in the legislature are elated over the passage of the amendment. They say is presages the coming of a time when all disputes will be settled by arbitration. The debate over the question took up most of the afternoon session, and while it was lively it was not as fiery as that of the previous day over the curative act.

Representative Beall secured the adoption of an amendment similar to the one which passed the senate, placing the Beal local option act in the house code, which means that it will stay there, both bodies having agreed on this. The anti-saloon people have issued a statement in which they claim that the insertion of the Beal act in the code is a victory for them. The saloon interests declare it makes no difference.

The senate had an interesting scrap yesterday over the Thompson bill for the repeal of the Jones arc light act. It was defeated as a motion to reconsider, which squelches the bill for all time. Thompson made a hard fight for the measure, and had it called up several times in various ways, but on each occasion its passage was blocked only by a narrow margin.

The senate adjourned till yesterday morning, when another adjournment will be taken to Monday. Little will be done before Tuesday, leaving these matters in about the same shape as they left the committee's hands. Consideration of the code may be completed by the house this week, and if no routine business follows, the legislature may be able to adjourn sine die not later than a week on Monday.

LOOKING AFTER REGISTRATION

Deputy Election Supervisors Making Arrangements to Apply the New Law.

VIEW OF STATE SECRETARY

Is That the Provisions of the Act Should Be Enforced in East Liverpool This Fall—His Advice to the County Board.

The county board of election supervisors is meeting at Lisbon today. The main purpose of the meeting is to make more complete arrangements for the registering of the voters of East Liverpool.

Definite word has been received from the secretary of state, Secretary Walton, of the county board was the recipient yesterday of a communication from Secretary of State Laylin, advising the board that the registering should be proceeded with according to the provisions of the special act passed last winter by the legislature. Mr. Laylin does not believe the law broad enough to cover every phase of the matter, and gives it as his opinion that while there are many points which could have been made more clear, still the supervisors will hardly meet with a great amount of difficulty in complying with the law as it is laid down in its present form.

As to the legality of the act, the state official has no doubt. The county board is authorized by him to proceed with the work at once, and that the state authorities will stand behind it until such time as the law is declared unconstitutional by some competent court. This to the present has not been done.

One drawback which the supervisors have met with is their inability to secure suitable rooms and furniture with which to furnish the registration officials. It is understood by the officers of the board, however, that Chief Thompson has taken up the work, and will provide whatever is necessary.

The secretary of state directs that especial care be taken by the board in the selection of the registers and the clerks. In order to make up for any points which may have been omitted from the law, the supervisors are ordered to exercise discretion and good judgment. They are also advised to act in accordance with the advice of the prosecuting attorney.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN TONIGHT'S MEETING TO BOOM NAVIGATION

All Indications Point to a Rousing Gathering and Great Enthusiasm on the Subject.

Prospects are encouraging for a large turnout at the "On to Cairo" meeting, to be held at the city hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock in pursuance of a call issued by Mayor Davidson.

Since the call was issued the subject has been paramount among all who have the general welfare of the city at heart. It is hoped that the management of every industry of the city will be represented, and each will be called upon to make a declaration on the subject. Logical arguments will undoubtedly be presented, and in one accord for the proposed river improvements.

W. E. Wells, general secretary of the Homer Laughlin China company, has accepted an invitation to propound the vital necessities of the improvements. He, being in a position to know exactly what the shipping industries have for years been in need of, his speech is being looked forward to with kindly anticipations.

Among the others who will likely be called upon to address the meeting are Col. J. N. Taylor, H. P. Knoblock and Wharfmaster Gus Martindill, all of whom are able to deliver weighty arguments.

The poor shipping facilities provided by the one railroad that reaches the city will be aired at length and time-worn stories will be told of how a car placed at a local shipping point has lain unmoved for four and eight days and sometimes as many as ten days.

Another point to be decided at the meeting is where the delegates that

THE CLAIMS ARE STILL PILING UP

Obligations of C. W. Pritchard, of Lisbon, Now Reported Likely to Reach $10,000.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special)—The list of C. W. Pritchard's creditors continues to lengthen, and the amount of his delinquencies now amounts to $10,000. He borrowed money wherever he could with the intention of leaving. But one man has been found who is ahead of Pritchard's game, and he has acknowledged he owes Pritchard 56 cents.

Messages have been received from Pritchard by different parties in which he says he will return.

T. B. Granam, the American Tin Plate office manager, said Cyrus W. Pritchard's accounts with the company are all right, with the exception of short pay envelopes. Pritchard has had the handling of the pay roll for some time.

A list in part of Pritchard's creditors, with the amounts as far as can be ascertained, follow: Judge J. G. Moore, $2,300 to $2,500; W. H. Barr, $12.37; Dr. F. T. Moore, $400; Mrs. Ida Eells, groceries; J. B. Lyder, $5.50; H. B. George, Reed Wilcoxen, Dr. Marquis, Lee Coen, Opera House orchestra, $70; Ed Pritchard; Mayor W. G. Farrell.

The messages Pritchard has been sending here are said to be dated at Pittsburg and Cleveland. Judge Moore and W. H. Barr have gone to Pittsburg.

AN AMBITIOUS PROJECT LAUNCHED

Pittsburg, Lisbon and Western Gets Charter For Railroad From Ashtabula to Steubenville.

The secretary of state has issued incorporation papers to the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western Railroad company, of Lisbon. The company is empowered to construct either a steam or electric road. Starting at Ashtabula the line will extend to the counties of Ashtabula, Trumbull, Mahoning, Columbiana, Jefferson, Holmes, Ashland, Richland, Knox, Morrow and Marion.

The capital stock is fixed at $10,000, and the incorporators are R. W. Tayler, George B. Harvey, Ross Firestone, J. W. Clark, N. E. Baringer, William Hostetter and N. B. Billingsley. The capital given, it is said, is only for organization purposes.

It is understood that steam will be used as the motive power, and that the terminals will be at Ashtabula harbor and Steubenville.

Ex-Judge N. B. Billingsley this afternoon gave out the following statement concerning the above incorporation:

"The names appearing upon the incorporation papers are not the persons who are most interested in this proposition. While the papers were issued in the name of the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western railroad the name of an old corporation was used. It means that this road, which extends from New Galilee to Lisbon, is to be extended through the counties named. The

Letter Explains to Democrats Why He Cannot Accept Their Nomination.

CONFERENCE AT ALLIANCE

Was Brief And It Was Decided to Let the East Liverpool Man Remain On the Labor Ticket—Canvass For Signatures.

As was exclusively mentioned in this paper yesterday T. J. Duffy's final decision in the matter of accepting the Democratic nomination has been reached and his answer to the Democratic congressional committee has been prepared.

The document was completed last night and will be ready for publication tomorrow.

The answer is quite lengthy, embracing half a dozen sheets of typewritten copy, and is said to contain a very clear explanation of his position as it relates to the Democratic party.

The meeting of labor advocates at Alliance yesterday was held behind closed doors, and nothing could be learned as to the business taken up by them. Those present were: Warren Williamson, Youngstown; E. J. Creedon, Massillon; A. S. Hughes, representing Thomas J. Duffy, of East Liverpool; Charles Bonsall, of Salem; Fred Johnson and Will Kolb, of Alliance.

The session was not a lengthy one, but it is understood it was definitely decided that Mr. Duffy was to remain with the Labor ticket. Aside from this very little was done.

Charles Bonsall, of Salem, was in Canton today, where he went for the purpose of securing names to the petition to be presented to the secretary of state, asking that the Labor ticket be made a part of the official ballot at this fall's election. He is said to be meeting with a reasonable amount of success.

COUNTRY CLUB CHARTERED

Local Organization to Follow Golf And Other Games Is Incorporated.

The Highland Country club, of East Liverpool, has incorporated "to engage in country sports and games." This is the recently organized golf club.

The incorporators are as follows: R. T. Hall, C. E. Macrum, M. C. Wright, W. H. Phillips, H. T. Hall, John C. Thompson, W. L. Thompson, Joseph G. Lee, S. B. Larkins, W. H. Vodrey, A. S. Young, S. T. Herbert, C. F. Goodwin, W. E. Dunlap, M. Goldsmith, T. B. Anderson and J. S. Wilson.

A HEAD OF PITTSBURG

Local Base Ball Fans Are Making a Strong Claim for East Livepool.

Local base ball fans are rejoicing today. They claim that East Liverpool's team can now be called the champion of the world. Pittsburg has been conceded to be the fastest team in the universe. This team played a tie game of 11 innings with Rochester yesterday.

East Liverpool has demonstrated its superiority over Rochester, and consequently is a notch ahead of Pittsburg.

A Chance to Recover.

Nannie Bucey, the little 14 year old girl who met with the terrible accident at the K. T. & K. pottery yesterday, is reported some better today by her attending physician, Dr. W. N. Bailey. He states that she has rested as well as could be expected and that she has some chance for recovery.

DRAGON MUCH IMPROVED

Slav Lad Likely to Get Well—Alleged Assailant Will Get Off Very Easy.

The condition of little Michael Dragon, victim of an assault in the East End last week, is much improved and hopes for his recovery are being entertained. It is likely that nothing more serious than a charge of assault will be preferred against young Robert Kelly, who, it is alleged, struck Dragon.

Prosecuting Attorney Brookes telephoned to Mayor Davidson last evening in regard to the boy's condition and the mayor replied that Dragon had every chance in the world for recovery. That settled the case as far as the present term of court is concerned.

Reported Wedding.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special.)—It is reported from Hanoverton that Dr. A. C. Rideout, a specialist recently of Salem, and Mrs. Anna George have been married. Mrs. George is the woman who was acquitted at Canton of the murder of George B. Saxton, brother of Mrs. McKinley. Dr. and Mrs. Rideout are visiting at Hanoverton.

Booked to Speak at Canton.

Congressman R. W. Tayler, of Lisbon, and Hon. James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress in the Eighteenth Ohio district, of Youngstown, will deliver addresses at Canton Grand opera house on the evening of October 22.

DECISION RESERVED

By Judge Boone in a Case Involving A Widow's Dower Rights.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special)—The case of John S. Atterholt, as administrator of the estate of Samuel Springer, against Kate M. Springer et al., was before Judge Boone yesterday. The question involved was whether the widow is entitled to her dower as against a mechanic's lien. The case has become complicated.

Samuel Springer died leaving a house and lot incumberer with claims for material and labor. Recently the court ordered the property sold for debt. The question then came up as to whether the widow should get her dower before or after the mechanic's lien was satisfied.

The widow filed an answer in court in which she admitted that the dower was subject to lien holders, but filed another in which she maintained her dower should take precedence. Immediately after her first answer, however, the property had been sold, the creditors allege, to their disadvantage. Their contention is, that the filing of her first answer estopped her from further proceedings. Judge Boone has reserved his decision.

Jury Commissioners' Meeting.

Lisbon October 2.—(Special.)—The jury commissioners met here today to arrange for the filling of the jury box for the coming year. The jurymen are to be appointed according to the number of votes in the wards and townships.

Girl Goes to Delaware.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special.)—Ethel McMillan, a 13-year-old incorrigible, was brought here this morning from East Liverpool. She will be taken to the industrial school at Delaware tomorrow by Mrs. C. P. Leonard, wife of Sheriff Leonard.

WEDDED AT ZANESVILLE

D. A. Woodward, of This City, Has Returned With His Bride.

D. A. Woodward, of this city, and Miss Jessis Robertson, of Zanesville, were married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, in Zanesville, Rev. J. C. Holliday officiated. Only the relatives and friends of the couple were present.

The home was beautifully decorated and at the conclusion of the ceremony a fine dinner was served. The bride was handsomely robed in a blue traveling gown. Numerous costly presents were received. The couple arrived here last evening. They immediately went to housekeeping in a cosy home on Broadway. Mr. Woodward is a popular motorman on the East Liverpool railway. His wife is one of Zanesville's most estimable young ladies.

FIERCE BATTLE ON OHIO'S BANKS

Shanty-Boat Residents Have a Conflict in Which Several Are Injured.

BAD BLOOD HAS EXISTED

For Some Time And a Spirited Encounter Was the Result—Knives, Rocks And Clubs Said to Have Been Used Quite Freely.

There was trouble on the banks of the Ohio last night. Knives, rocks and clubs were conspicuous missiles in the hands of a well known gang of desperadoes. That one of more persons were not fatally wounded can be credited to only the interference of citizens who were attracted to the scene by the loud and whooping yells of those who participated in the melee.

It was the result of a long standing feud that has existed between members of local shantyboatmen. Jack Brighouse, better known as Kaiser, his wife, Joseph Woolley and son Ralph were the star performers.

For months the elder Woolley and son have been moored in their shanty-boat on the West Virginia side, directly opposite the Brighouse boat. Upon their every trip to this side a war of words has been indulged in by the couples and last night's performance differed only in the use of arms instead of words.

Comanche Indians, it is said by those who heard them, never raised a greater disturbance than did this quartet. They fought like tigers, witnesses say, and all were almost unrecognizable after the fight was stopped. From

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CHAMPION PLANT STARTED.

After many months of waiting brick is at last being made at the new plant of the Champion Fire Brick company, which is located at Rauch's Run, just east of Wellsville. While the plant has been in operation but partially, it is by no means completed, nor will it be finished for many months. When it is completed the plant will have a capacity of 12 kilns that will be ready to top out in a very few days. This plant is the most up-to-date factory of its kind in his part of the country. In building the works, there was but one thing taken into consideration, and that was economy of space. Every foot of room is occupied, and one department is in close proximity to the other. The clay is taken from the mine, and just at the mouth of the mine is located the grinding machinery. From there the clay is carried by large elevators to another part of the building, from where it is permitted to drop into the pug mill. There it is mixed with water, and as this piece of machinery is most modern, a large continuous block or piece of clay is constantly coming from the pug mill, which is forced over small wood rollers to the cutting machine. This machine, in revolving continually, cuts the large block of clay into the bricks, and just at the end of this machine the bricks are placed on iron cars. There cars are packed in to the dry kilns, and after the two tracks in each dry kiln is filled, and a new car is pushed into the kiln at one end, a car of dry bricks is forced out at the other end of the kiln. From this kiln in the plant proper it is but a short distance to the large kilns where the bricks are fired, and the cars of brick are pushed from the dry kilns right to the door of the large kilns outside the plant. In this manner fast work can be accomplished. The new plant, when in full operation, will have a capacity of about 50,000 brick a day, and nothing but brick will be made. It was given out some time ago that sewer pipe would be made at this plant, but such is not the case.

WALKER PLANT TO START.

The American Sewer Pipe company is spending several thousand dollars in improving the Walker plant, which has but one press, will soon be placed in operation. The engine which was formerly used at the East End sewer pipe plant has been installed at Walker, and is about in readiness to operate. There is a small amount of small pipe in the green state at this plant, but it will not be fired until other pipe has been made. In short, there is not enough pipe in the plant now to fill half a kiln. Changes have been made all through the plant. Improvements have been added to the machinery throughout the plant and new platforms have been built alongside the railroad tracks. All this work requires time, and although a goodly number of men are being employed repairing the plant, their work is of a very tedious nature. The one press at these works is capable of making either 2 inch or 24 inch pipe, just as required. The stock yards are also being enlarged, and when the plant is started it will be run steadily. General Manager Hartford and an assistant are engaged in taking stock, and their work will be completed in a day or so. The company will not operate the upper works, formerly used for the making of brick, and this building is fast decaying, and will soon be utterly unfit for use.

FOR CHRISTMAS TIMES.

A number of the general ware potteries of this city are beginning to put new shapes on the market for the Christmas and spring trade. Each year the standard of earthen ware production in this country is assuming a higher degree of excellence. To any one who has been in close touch with the progress of the pottery industry in America, during the past ten years, the improvement in dinner and toilet designs has been very striking. While there is a wide inclination prevalent to turn out large quantities of ware, the quality of the articles produced has not been neglected. The tone of pottery manufacture continues to improve in this country and there are ceramic critics who have stated that general ware productions are of a very high order and in many instances bear favorable comparison with any in the world.

TO START THIS WEEK.

The pottery department of this paper is in receipt of a letter from an official of the Crown Potteries company at Evansville, Ind., in which the fact is made known that ground is to be broken this week for the new pottery to be erected by that company, and which will be known as the National Pottery company. It is the intention of the company to have the plant in operation, if it is possible, not later than the first of the year. With the National China company, Jefferson R. Warner, president in this city, and the National Pottery company, Aaron M. Weil, president, of Evansville, Ind., it seems that the name National is being overworked. The same can be said about the name "Dresden." A firm in this city and the new company at Salineville will use the same name.

TINKERING WITH TARIFF.

The fact that a congressional election is almost at hand is arousing much interest among pottery manufacturers and workers. A manufacturer who is most prominent in politics in this state said a few days ago that the coming congress would no doubt attempt to tinker with the tariff, and no matter what kind of a candidate is elected, unless he is a Republican, he will be compelled to stand up for the national platform of the Democratic party. A candidate on the Democratic ticket, no matter whether he represens an industrial district or not, will be in duty bound to support the planks of the Democratic platform. East Liverpool is now in its most prosperous era, and tinkering with the tariff is not desired by its people.

TOP KILN DRAWN.

The first ware to be taken from the new top kilns at the D. E. McNicol pottery has been drawn and shows excellent results. The company has several top kilns in working order at the present time. By using the tops of the kilns, a full glost kiln is gained every week. While the company has been firing yellow biscuit ware in these kilns in the past, a new plan has been tried, and white biscuit ware is to be fired. The first top kiln of ware to be fired in this manner will be placed within the next few days, and the innovation will without doubt prove a profitable one to the firm. It is said there in not another pottery in the city where white biscuit ware is given its first firing in the top kiln.

NO FRICTION NOW.

For the past few days there has been a slight friction between certain employes of the kiln departments of Laughlin No. 2 and 3, over the formation of the new relief association, but at a meeting which was held on Tuesday, everything was settled to the satisfaction of all concerned. It was rumored the kilnmen at No. 3 did not care to join the association which was formed by the lower floor employes of No. 2, but as the matter has been satisfactorily arranged, everybody appears to be satisfied. The by-laws for the new association are now being printed, and will be ready for distribution in a few days.

A STRANGER IN TOWN.

Visiting at the home of his sons, Walter and William Davidson, on first visit of Mr. Davidson to this city and although he has been here but a few days, he is most favorably impressed with the customs and the potteries of this pottery center. Mr. Davidson's sons are employed at stickers up at the Thompson pottery, having been employed before they came here in the Campbell pottery at Hamilton. The elder Davidson had never seen a pottery in which gas was used for firing kilns until he came to this city and the sight was most interesting. Nothing but yellow ware in made in the Hamilton pottery, and white ware is not made nearer that city than at Quebec. Mr. Davidson will remain in this city several weeks calling upon his numerous friends.

WORKING ON FOUNDATION.

Owing to the wet weather of the past few days not much progress has been made upon the foundation for the new addition that is to be erected by the West End Pottery company. One part of the foundation has been completed, but still there is much more work to be done by the stone masons. It will be several days, it is said before carpenters of other workmen will be able to commence work at this addition, owing to the fact that the stone masons have been somewhat delayed.

CHETWYND STRIKE SETTLED.

After several conferences with the officials of the company, which were held yesterday afternoon and last evening, the fillers-in employed at the Wallace & Chetwynd pottery returned to work this morning. The conference yesterday resulted in a compromise, and the fillers-in at the Globe also returned to work today. Disputes of the same character took place at both plants.

RESIGNED HIS POSITION.

James F. Cochrane, who for some time has been employed in the warehouse at the Brunt pottery, has resigned his position. He has received an offer to become associated with the firm of T. G. Evans & Co., of Pittsburg, as chief warehouseman, and left this morning for that city, to close the deal. Cochrane is one of the best known warehousemen in the city.

HE HAS GONE SOUTH.

Daniel E. McNicol, of the D. E. McNicol Pottery company, left today for an extensive business trip through the south. He will be gone several weeks. During the trip he will visit his extensive clay mines in North Carolina, and will also spend a week or more at Lexington, Ky., visiting former friends.

ILL WITH FEVER.

John Roberts, manager of the decorating department of the Brunt pottery, is very ill at his home on Thompson Hill, suffering with typhoid fever. He has been ill for several days, and will not be able to resume his work for several days.

CHANGED HIS POSITION.

Ralph Turner, who has been employed as a glost kilnman at the McNicol pottery for many months, has been transferred to the biscuit bench at the same shop. He commenced work in his new position this week.

FOUND JOBS HERE

Did Not Have to Hunt for It, Contractor McLaughlin Engaging Them at Once.

Eleven strangers arrived in this city this morning, and within an hour after they alighted from an eastern train they were given employment by Contractor Thomas McLaughlin, at the rate of $1.75 a day.

These men came direct to this city from the Pennsylvania coal fields where the great coal strike is now in progress, but just how long they will remain here cannot be told. The men do not know themselves. If the great strike is settled within a fortnight it is likely that the miners will return to eastern Pennsylvania to their families.

It will be remembered that this paper told of about 50 striking miners passing through this city last Saturday for Irondale, where they had been employed by General Manager Burnside, of the Norris Coal company. After the 11 men came here this morning they commenced to look for work, and they ran right into it. They took a car for the East End, but got no farther than the power house. There they alighted and the first person they met was Contractor McLaughlin.

The men asked for work, and with open arms, McLaughlin received them. The men were told to get off their best clothes and go to work at once and at the rate of $1.75 a day. Each man was well dressed and under their arms were bundles of working clothes. Some of the younger members of the party had overcoats with them, and there was not one of the party who was not good looking. In fact, they did not have the appearance of being coal miners. But that does not matter.

These men have been given employment, just what they asked for, and there is ample room for others to be employed on the same contract. Additional teams are to be put to work at once on this contract of grading for the Cleveland & Pittsburg Railroad company, and if the coal strike lasts much longer it is likely other miners will be sent for by their friends who are now here.

Select the good, avoid the bad, then you will always use Meredith's Diamond Club Pure Rye Whiskey; price fair, goods guaranteed.

SUMMONS DISREGARDED

East End Young Man Said to Have Disobeyed Behest to Meet Grand Jury.

People of the East End who claim to be in a position to know stated this morning that several young men of the East End who had been summoned to appear before the grand jury at Lisbon today would not be there. Just why these youths dislike to take the trip to the county seat is not stated, but there is one thing sure, the course they are taking may be a most serious one. A few days ago Deputy Sheriff Davidson left a summons at the home of a young man in the East End, but the "lady of the house" thought that it was meant for an older member of the family, and accordingly, Mr. Davidson served it upon the older person by the same name. This reached the ears of Prosecuting Attorney Brookes, and last evening word was sent to the East End authorities to see to it that the young man for whom the summons was intended, appeared at Lisbon this morning.

Relatives of the young man stated today that he would not be at Lisbon, and that he was working as usual. Owing to this fact something interesting may develop in the next few days. Another young of this part of the city left for another state after he received a summons; and as this is not according to law, it is hard to tell what may happen. Matters are beginning to look interesting.

New Stalls Beirg Erected And Arrangements Made for Great Number of Horses.

Carpenters have commenced work at Columbian park erecting a hundred or more stalls which will be used during the Tri-State fair, which is to be held at the park within the next few days. The contract for this work was let to Alex Chafin, but he was delayed in starting the work, owing to the inability to secure a sufficient number of workmen. There will be at least 100 horses at the fair, and it is expected that many more stalls than that will be built. A large number of men are at work on the work, and it is thought they will finish early next week.

The officers of the association have secured a number of additional attractions, including several horse that race without either riders or drivers. One of these horses has a mark of 2:05¼.

SURGICAL WORK IN CHINA

Dr. Swan Writes to His Father of Many Operations Performed On Natives.

Rev. J. N. Swan, of the East End, received a letter this morning from his son, who is a physician at Canton, China. The letter stated that a few days ago previous to the writing Dr. Swan had performed many operations upon the natives for the removal of tumors.

Just the day before nine natives were operated upon, and from one of the natives, the letter states that a tumor weighing 40 pounds was removed from the right shoulder of a Chinaman. The tumor was placed in a sack, through which a stick was placed, and carried away on the shoulder of a native. Dr. Swan also stated that in one day he had performed nine operations for the removal of tumors.

To Appear Against Allison.

The river improvement meeting tonight should be large and enthusiastic. Considering the interest East Liverpool has in seeing the Ohio made navigable from Pittsburg to its mouth, the cry, "On to Cairo," should be taken up and made to echo until the sound reaches the halls of congress. In these days few things that are worth having are obtained without asking for them. The demand for a navigable river is going to be long and loud, and East Liverpool, unless blind to her own interests, should be in the van of the petitioners for it. We should send some of our best citizens to the Parkersburg meeting. It will be an easy matter for them to fortify themselves with arguments that will carry weight, both at the Parkersburg meeting and with the national legislators. The president has placed himself on record as favoring river imprivement, and all friends of the project have excellent reason to be encouraged. A long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, and the task will be accomplished much earlier than if the legislators are left to procrastinate.

The action of President Roosevelt, in inviting the anthracite coal operators and the national president of the miners' union to meet him to discuss possible ways and means of ending the great strike, is unprecedented, but that fact does not prove that it is unwise. The trammels of conventionality are something that the president refuses to be bound by. If he sees a chance to do good, he embraces it, regardless of what the world may think or how the action may affect his political fortunes. Thousands of well-meaning people have been urging him to use his good offices to end the strike, and he plainly shows to them that he is willing to do what he can. There can be no politics in the movement, and no harm to any interest can result in the proposed conference. A general acceptance of the president's invitation and a manifestation of the spirit which prompted it may result in benefit to all concerned. It remains to be seen whether the coal operators are utterly careless and indifferent as to the public welfare.

The Democrats in the legislature, acting as a party, can do nothing either for or against code legislation. But they can pursue the dog-in-the-manger policy and delay the progress of work which all Ohio is eager to see accomplished. Partisan politics should have no place in providing laws for the government of Ohio cities, but the Democrat who would rather work for the good of the state than for party buncombe is conspicuous by his absence from the general assembly.

In attempting to settle the coal strike during his period of convalescence President Roosevelt has set himself a task which might easily daunt a well but less courageous man.

Michigan is now represented in the United States senate by two Ohio men. Other states which want up-to-date representatives know where to look for the men.

Laura Biggar needn't be discouraged. Think how she will draw as the lady who wasn't satisfied with $700,000 if she goes on the stage again.

More South American revolutions are due. The historian who attempts to keep track of them all will certainly have his hands full.

What Democrat of the Eighteenth district is anxious to be defeated as a candidate for congress? Don't all speak at once, gentlemen.

Tom Johnson's automobile stuck in the mud the other day, an augury of what the whole outfit may expect in November.

The ship combine is capitalized at $200,000,000. Of course it will take lots of water to float it.

David B. Hill is still in politics, though a lot of Democrats would be glad if he were not.

new corporation will absorb the old company, and it is expected that a meeting with this end in view will be held within the next two weeks. For the past four months a large force of surveyors have been at work on the extension of this road, and all the preliminary work is about completed. There are some few details yet to be looked after, and it will take but a short time to do this. The preliminary work has progressed most favorably, and those back of the movement are well satisfied."

When asked if this extension would touch East Liverpool, it was said that an extension to this city would depend greatly upon how favorably rights of way could be secured for it. "I can not say very much about the future intentions of the company just at this time, but that the extension to the road will be built there is no doubt," said the judge.

AT THE THEATER

For 24 years the Bennett-Moulton company has occupied a place in the very forefront of American amusement enterprises. Certain it is that no repertoire company playing Bradford has even presented such a notable list of plays as "Darkest Russia," "The Captain's Mate," "A Daughter of the South," "Outcasts of Society," "The Pay Train" and "Capital Against Labor." The opening bill is the great comedy-drama, "Darkest Russia," employing the full strength of the company. Reserved seat sale opens Saturday morning.

If a wholesome, honest, cleanly play that alternates pathos and laughter with gatling gun rapidity is what theatergoers want, they will go to see Denman Thompson and George W. Ryer's greatest of all dramas, "Our New Minister," when it comes again to the Grand Friday night. "Our New Minister" was praised in these columns last season when it made its initial appearance here; no other rural play, not even "The Old Homestead" appeals more thoroughly to the masses than this idyl of New England life.

"East Lynne" will be seen at the New Grand opera house on Saturday afternoon and evening of this week. Miss Warren, the star of the piece, has never had an adverse criticism, and the company carries its own scenery. The production is promised to be the best seen here this season.

A good crowd witnessed "Indiana Folks" presented at the Grand last evening. The play was well received and the specialties were especiall pleasing.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

The case of Andy Galm vs. Kate Mader was held yesterday in 'Squire Johnston's court in Chester. Judgment was given in favor of Galm, the defendant not appearing. F. E. Grosshans, attorney for Mrs. Mader, made a motion for a new trial. 'Squire Johnston withheld his decision in this question.

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure."

It is undoubtedly true that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Peede, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

are to be appointed will be instructed to recommend the placing of the dam. The closer to the city that the dam is built the greater the benefits to local interests. It will not matter materially, so far as the navigation is concerned, but when considering the fact that it will require the labor of several hundred men and that for over two years it is a very important point to be considered. If erected in close proximity to the city, it will mean the disbursement of thousands of dollars among East Liverpool citizens. Why should the city not have it? Influential men selected as delegates to the convention can work wonders in this direction.

The names of the delegates have been practically decided upon, but not knowing that they will accept the honor, it is prudent to withhold them. There will be at least three appointed and perhaps five.

Mayor Davidson will call the meeting to order and after stating its object will ask for the nomination of a chairman. Besides the selection of delegates to the convention various committees will be appointed to work in conjunction with the delegates.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

WELLSVILLE

A THING OF THE PAST

Foot Ball Team of Ex-High School Boys Reported Disbanded.

The Ex-High School foot ball team, which was organized only a few evenings ago, and which was to be the representative team of Wellsville, is now a thing of the past.

The team averaged about 150 pounds and was composed of the following strong players: Holland, McClure, Daughaday, Anderson, Foltz, Cummins, McLain, Blue, Cope, Heaken, McConnell and Knox. The evening that they organized, holding their meeting in the C. & P. reading rooms, they elected Frank McLain manager and W. E. Knox captain.

The aggregation included some of the very best amateur players in the county, and had they played with any outside team would have undoubtedly held their own.

The team broke up for the simple reason that the men could not get together for practice. It seems that most of the men are employed during the day, while two or three of them are employed at night. For this reason alone they were unable to get together and thought it therefore best to disband, as they were unable to accept any challenges which might come in.

Mr. McLain stated a few evenings ago that he had arranged with several small colleges near here for games. He expected to make arrangements for a game within a few days with the Juniata club of Beaver Falls, but will now have to drop all of these engagements.

The only representative team which this city now supports is the Bruno Athletic club team, which is under the management of Edward Bunting. This team is very light, only averaging about 130 pounds.

It has already challenged outside teams and will arrange for a game the first part of next week.

THE POLES MUST GO

Council Committee Taking Action to Rid Streets of Unnecessary Obstructions.

At the regular meeting of council next Monday evening the matter of ridding the city thoroughfares of unnecessary electric light, telegraph and telephone poles will probably be disposed of. The pole committee of council held a meeting recently and decided that the poles, which are blocking the city streets and which are not in the least necessary, must be removed. The matter was brought before council some time ago and was left in the hands of the pole committee. Now that it has taken action council will likely dispose of it.

W. G. Stewart, who resides on Broadway, at one time handed in a complaint to council calling attention to the fact that there were too many poles in the front, and on the sides of his property. He asked that something be done in the matter. While there are five poles surrounding his property, two would very readily answer the purpose. Mr. Stewart's complaint is only one of the many that have been received by council. The unnecessary poles are considered a nuisance.

REPLACING PAVING

Street Railway Company Is Having the Work Done Which Council Ordered.

In accordance with an agreement made by Manager Healy, of the East Liverpool street railway, and council at the last meeting, the work of replacing the street paving along the line of route of the street railroad is now being done by Contractor Rinehart's men.

Although the paver is replacing new brick where the old ones were taken up, the new pavement is said not to be as secure and sound as the old. Unless it is rolled after the brick are laid and the sand is thrown over it, council will probably take action compelling that work to be done. The pavers have now completed most of the paving except a long stretch in the West End.

FREE DELIVERY

Postoffice Inspector Looking Over Wellsville With View to Installing It.

E. M. Norris, a postoffice inspector, today inspected the local postoffice with a view toward establishing a free delivery in the city and also to settle upon the rent which the postoffice department will hereafter pay.

Regarding the free delivery, Postmaster Snowden has recently reported that the postoffice receipts this year at this time are $500 more than they were last year at the same time. Last year the receipts fell short only $1,500 to the required amount of $10,000, which would give the city free delivery. From the present outlook this year the business will nearly reach the required amount, and what little is short may be made up through merchants purchasing stamps.

Mr. Norris stated this morning that if the city had free delivery it would have to remove the postoffice into a much larger room.

ON TO CAIRO MEETING

Wellsville Will Have One as Soon as City Hall Repairs Are Finished.

As soon as the repairs upon the hall in the third floor of the city building, have been completed, an "On to Cairo" public meeting will be arranged for. Mayor Fogo has had this movement in hand for some time and means to use all of his power and influence in pushing the matter along.

The meeting to be held will be open to every one, and a packed hall is assured for that occasion. Out of town speakers will be secured. The repair work will be completed about the 15th of this month.

Fined Him $13.60.

Mayor Fogo last evening fined Edward Henshaw $13.60. Henshaw was arrested yesterday by Officer John Henthorn on a charge of resisting an officer. It seems that the Henshaws at their home in the extreme West End were raising quite a disturbance. The officer found that Pres Henshaw was the cause of the disturbance, and upon trying to take him was resisted by the balance of the family and more forcibly by Ed Henshaw.

Notes of the Unions.

The Clerks' union held its regular meeting last evening in Potters' hall, on Ninth street. About one-half of the members were present. No business of especial interest was transacted. No action was taken in the matter of holding a banquet. The regular weekly meeting of the Carpenters' union was held last evening, but only routine business was transacted.

SOUTH SIDE

ATTACKED BY BEES

R. E. Allison Robbed Them of Their Honey And They Retaliated.

R. E. Allison is suffering from a badly swollen hand, the result of an attack upon him by an angry swarm of bees. Early in the season Mr. Allison located a bee tree in the woods near his home. He bided his time until he thought the season far enough advanced for a good crop of honey and then sallied forth and felled the tree.

From an opening in the side of the trunk, he was carefully extracting the honey when the bees, aroused from their peaceful slumbers, rushed out and painfully stung him.

Mr. Allison finally killed most of the bees and made off with his spoil, 40 pounds of honey.

CHESTER NOTES.

John Cunningham has recovered from typhoid fever and is back in his store.

CHALLENGE ISSUED

ROCHESTER INVITED TO MEET WALSH'S TEAM AGAIN.

Each Club Must Put Up $500, the Money to Go to the Victors.

Angered because the Rochester base ball team refused to play out the series scheduled to decide the championship of western Pennsylvania and northeastern Ohio and fully confident that his team can best the Pennsylvania boys under any circumstances, Manager Charles Walsh, through a Pittsburg paper this morning challenged the team of the white feathers for another series of three games.

The challenge, if accepted by the management of the Rochester team, will mean that each team must put up $500, to go to the one winning the majority of games. It also includes the gate receipts of the entire number of games. To make the challenge bona fide Manager Walsh enclosed a check for $50. He thus showed that he means business and has undying confidence in his aggregation.

Local fans will await an answer from Rochester with anxiety. It is almost an assured fact, however, that the challenge will not be accepted, as Rochester has already seen that when against East Liverpool it is against the real thing. Its players will likely do as they have done heretofore—do an unlimited amount of blowing, but fail to come up with the cash.

The following is the challenge verbatim as published in the Pittsburg Post this morning:

"We, the East Liverpool base ball club, hereby challenge the Rochester, Pa., base ball club to play us a series of three games for $500 a side and the entire gate receipts of the three games, the first game to be played in East Liverpool, the second in Rochester and if a third game is necessary said third game to be played on neutral grounds. Each team to use the same players that played in the games on September 26 and 27, 1902, provided, however, that either team may substitute any player who has taken part in not less than five games with that team during the season of 1902. The sporting editor of the Pittsburg Post to act as stakeholder and to select the umpire for the games.

County Commissioners to Look After a Bridge Reported Unsafe.

Lisbon, October 2.—(Special.)—The commissioners were notified of the unsafe condition of the bridge along the Mahoning county line midway between Columbiana and Washingtonville and will investigate.

They claim they have been victimized by false reports of such matters, and have made many disagreeable trips overland, only to find that their services were not required, and that it belonged to local authorities to remedy the matters complained of.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York

IN WESTERN WILDS

LEETONIA MAN GOT LOST AND WANDERED FOR DAYS.

Startling Adventures of John Flooding While Hunting in Colorado.

Some time ago Fred Wiedmeyer, who had been a druggist in Leetonia, closed out his business interests there and started with a party on a hunting trip through the wilds of Colorado. This was about two months ago, and after he had been in the west for a month he wrote to another Leetonia man, John A. Flooding, who is a butcher in that town, telling him of the pleasures of the trip and inviting him to come on and join the party. This Flooding decided to do.

The party was composed of Dr. H. M. Schuffel, of Canton; Charles Sell and Thomas Wolf, of Osnaburg, and Fred Wiedmeyer and John Flooding, the two Leetonia men. The party went to the home of Zach Doll at New Castle, Col., Doll being an old friend and a former Canton man.

Last week letters were received in Canton, written by Charles Sell, a member of the party, which caused the greatest alarm among the friends of Flooding. In brief, it stated that while the party was out on a camping expedition in the mountains, some 20 miles from New Castle, Flooding had mysteriously been lost, and that after a search of several days the party had been unable to locate him. The letter expressed fears that he had fallen prey to grizzly bears or other wild beasts.

A copy of the New Castle (Col.) Nonpareil of last Wednesday states that Flooding returned to camp on the previous Monday. He had been driven a distance of 32 miles by a Miller Creek ranchman. Had Mr. Flooding not been a very plucky and sensible young man, the story would have had a different ending. It is no joke for anyone to be wandering around in a heavy storm in a strange country without food for 60 hours, as many, getting bewildered and confused, would have met a more serious mishap, but Flooding kept his wits about him and finally pulled out at a ranch on Miller Creek, where he got food and conveyance back to friends.

THE FIRST CONCESSION

For a Street Railway in the Cuban Republic Granted to Youngstown Men.

Youngstown, October 2.—The first public service concession granted by the republic of Cuba and the city of Havana was made to the syndicate of capitalists headed by Messrs. W. H. Park and H. G. Hamilton, of this city.

A cablegram to them from J. D. Milligan, now at Havana, announces that the long delayed electric railway concession had been granted in full and nothing now remains but to begin the work of construction.

Some time ago the syndicate, including Youngstown, New York and Cleveland capitalists, secured a right from the Cuban government to build an electric line in the other portions of the city, the name of the company being the Havana & Jaminitas Railway company. It was desired to extend the line later into the business part of the city and the later concession has now been approved by the government railway commission, which consists of the cabinet of President Palma. The city council of Havana had already granted the right

This extension means that the lines will pass on two sides of the presidential palace, along the steamship wharves, and in fact will penetrate the best business portion of the city. It will also extend 10 or 12 miles into the country. It was a great triumph for Youngstown diplomacy and for American pluck and brains.

Mr. Hamilton said: "We shall begin to build the line at once, just as soon as we can get the material there. We shall start construction in the outskirts of the city first. Mr. Milligan will sail for home Saturday."

SALINEVILLE

Salineville, October 2.—Rev. W. H. McMaster, of Blairsville, lectured in the United Presbyterian church Tuesday on moral reform.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Thompson, of this town, drove over to the village of Scroggsfield last Monday and were the guests of his wife's sister, Mrs. Andrew George.

At a recent congregational meeting of the United Presbyterian church it was voted to allow the pastor, Rev. F. E. Dean, to supply the congregation of Grant's Hill every third Sunday afternoon with preaching at 2 o'clock until January 1.

The Dorrance brothers will move their saw mill this week from its present location on the farm of R. B. Sharp to the farm of Alexander Hart.

Mrs. Clay, of Massillon, after a week's visit with friends in Salineville, has returned home.

McCartney, the tinner, moved his store and household goods to the Hogue building Tuesday.

The common pleas court sent invitations to about 40 Salineville citizens to appear Wednesday.

FIFTY YEARS A PRINTER

Jesse Harris, Formerly of This City, Has Set Type Since 1852.

Salem, October 2.—It was 50 years ago on September 28, 1852, that Jesse Harris, who resides at 622 McKinley avenue, and is now an employe of the T. J. Walton Printing company on Vine street entered the printing business. He learned the case in this city at the office of the Anti-Slavery Bugle, which was conducted by John Hudson. Mr Harris was at that time 17 years of age, and is now probably the oldest printer in working harness in the state. He is still an expert.

In May, 1861, he started the first paper that was published in East Liverpool. It was a weekly and was called the East Liverpool Mercury. Mr. Harris was editor of the publication and continued in that capacity for two years. Mr. Harris has been an employe of Mr. Walton for many years. He has lost but few days on account of sickness since he learned the trade half a century ago.

TRADES COUNCIL TO TAKE NO ACTION

That Body Decides to Take No Steps to Keep Farmers From Selling Meat.

INTERESTS OF WORKERS

Are Not Likely to Be Promoted By Such Action—A Variety of Other Matters Discussed And Disposed of Last Night.

The attendance was not large at the meeting of Trades Council last night but the interest was none the less manifest.

One of the most important actions taken was the passage of a resolution requesting that the council take no action with reference to the licensing of farmers and hucksters who peddle meat in this city. The resolutions follows:

"Resolved, That the members of the City Council of the city of East Liverpool be asked to refrain from passing any resolution introduced by the butchers asking for the prevention of the sale of meats by the farmers of this vicinity. It is considered that the provisions of the ordinance asked for will be contrary to the national constitution, and that if the council looks to the interests of the laboring people they will not take action in regard to the request."

The secretary of the council was instructed to send a communication to the city council notifying them of the stand taken by Trades Council.

The plumbers of Norfolk asked for assistance and they were voted $5.

The garment workers of Marietta reported that the Union Overall company, of that city, was unfair, and the delegates to the council were instructed to look out for the same.

The Shingle Weavers' union, of Tacoma, Wash., reported on two shingle firms that were non-union. A committee was appointed to see that the shingles were not used in this city.

The laundry workers of Saginaw Mich., have been having considerable trouble and they explained in a communication that they were short of funds on account of a strike among the miners of the district. A donation of $3 was ordered.

The Marine Trades Council, of New York and vicinity, is active in the behalf of Capt. J. A. Smith, to take the place of Admiral Melville, who is about to resign. Petitions have already been sent to the president in regard to the appointment and the secretary of the Trades Council was instructed to petition the senator and congressman of this district to advocate the appointment of Captain Smith.

The Central Labor union, Milwaukee, presented a communication asking for the formation of a union, which from appearance would be a rival of the American Federation of Labor The communication was laid over.

A statement was received to the effect that C. Heinman, a local bartender, who had been accused from Pittsburg of violating his obligation in the electrical workers' union, had appeared before the union where he had committed his offense and paid the necessary fine and had been reinstated. The ban that had been placed on him in this city was lifted.

Six months per capita tax was ordered paid by the secretary to the American Federation of Labor.

Treasurer Anderson made the following report from the beginning of his term: Receipts, $883.23; disbursements, $373.70; balance, $509.53.

A communication was received in regard to the appointment of a delegate to the national meeting of the American Federation of Labor, but the proposition was laid over until the next meeting of the council.

CHILDREN'S RECORD

Of Books Will Show Class of Literature Popular With Them.

Miss Baker, librarian of the Carnegie Public Library, who is ever engaged in interesting the children as well as the other readers, has designed a reading record for the children, which is not only novel but very useful.

These little record booklets will be distributed to the children in the public schools, in order that each child may have one. There is a place for the child's name, age and address, also for each month of the year. Beneath each month in five spaces where may be written the names of the books read during the month.

If the book read appeals to the child as being very interesting the reader is requested to mark on the book record the letter "v," and if merely interesting the letter "i," but if they do not care for the book at all the letter "n," is marked after the name of the book.

By this means the librarian will be enabled to classify more correctly the books which are especially interesting to the children.

AN OPEN SECRET.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism and that is to remove the cause of the disease. Rheumatism is a result of an excess of uric acid in the blood. Uric acid is formed by diseased kidneys. BLOOD WINE compels the kidneys to perform their work, thus stopping the flow of uric acid and absolutely curing rheumatism. Mrs. M. J. McCrillis, 434 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., says: "I suffered intensely from rheumatism in my hip. After taking five bottles of BLOOD WINE my general health greatly improved, and I am now well."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS GET THE BEAUTIFUL PRIZE.

Over 20,000 Ahead of the Firemen in the Contest Just Ended.

Colors flying in a grand stand finish the Knights of Columbus reached the wire last evening far ahead of any competitor and as a result won the Thompson prize piano which has been so ardently worked for since early July by about twenty local societies and organizations.

At the conclusion of the counting of the votes by Mayor Davidson, Chief Thompson, W. B. Lewis, Jacob Weisend, James Bauman, George and Thomas Betteridge, the committee of judges appointed at the beginning of the contest, it was found that the Knights of Columbus were easy winners, they having secured 104,762 votes, that number exceeding the next highest, those collected by the members of the city's fire department, by 21,020 votes

The firemen made a brave fight for the prize, and for weeks it looked as if they were sure of winning but when the last heat was finished the Knights demonstrated that they had been working just a little harded than their close seconds.

The prize, which is beautiful and of the finest material, was turned over to the winners today. They are to be congratulated on their success.

It is not known at what time the store was broken into, but it was probably about three o'clock this morning. Mr. McCutcheon's loss will not amount to over $5.

Mr. Bloom's store was probably the first to be entered, and it was from there that the most property was taken. About 12 o'clock, Mrs. C. F. Paulley, who keeps a cafe next to Bloom's, heard several men prowling around the house, but gave the matter no thought, as people often come there late at night to get a lunch. Her doors and windows were tried, but no entrance was effected. Mrs. Paulley heard the men tramping back and forth, and from the sounds made, judges that there were probably half a dozen of them. She heard the sounds coming from Bloom's store, but as Mr. Bloom does not retire early as a rule she was not excited over the fact.

Mr. Bloom's store presented a sorry appearance this morning. Show cases were torn up. Goods scattered and windows open. The gang pried open the side window of the store with a chisel found upon the premises. The desk was first broken open, and the contents scattered about over the floor. The key to the front door was taken from the desk and thrown out of the window. It was found this morning quite a distance from the house. The robbers were evidently much disappointed at not finding money in the desk.

The gang got about $50 worth of money from Bloom's store, besides a large amount of clothing, suits, mackintoshes, shoes, etc. Mr. Bloom cannot state exactly how much was taken, but $200 will probably not cover the total loss.

From Bloom's store, the theives went to the store of the Chester Grocery company. The back window was again the place through which they climbed. N. B. Rowley, the proprietor of the store, had taken all the money from the drawer with the exception of a plugged nickel, and a cent. The nickel was taken from the drawer but was laid upon the counter. The men helped themselves to a handful of tobies, but took nothing else. They opened the ice chest, but again they met with a frost. (joax) Money was very plainly the object of their visit, and not finding this they made their escape.

The gang was very probably for big game. Sheriff Allison, of New Cumberland, had been collecting taxes all day, and had considerable money about his person. It is thought, by most people, that Mr. Allison was the man for whom the gang was searching. Mr. Allison sometimes leaves the money in the safe at the postoffice and the thieves probably thought to crack the safe, and make off with a rich haul.

a point half way up the bank to the river and then to the boat they tumbled.

Brighouse, it would seem, would have the worst of such an engagement, owing to having but one strong arm and leg, but such was not the case. He not only handled them to perfection, but had an uncontrollable advantage, helped by his wife. Howling fiercely, it is said, that she used her hands and teeth with admirable results. The Woolleys, it is alleged, bear marks of her finger nails on their faces and their hair of their heads was given vigorous jerks.

When on the verge of topping into the river the quartet was interrupted. The fighters then separated and at long distances swore what the result would have been had then been allowed to fight it out. The Woolleys are of fighting stock, but they have close seconds in the Kaisers, and it is very likely that upon their next meeting blood will be spilled.

An eye witness to the fight stated this morning that he intended making information against the entire bunch but the mayor has not yet been approached.
